Introduction

THESE ideas will cause a firestorm in our world. Give us a beachhead and a rallying cry for hope in the last great Human revolution on Earth that is storming through our civilization today. They will help us all find the answers to the three great enigmas of our age.

Why should we truly care for each other?

Why were we born?

What does Universe really mean?

True growth, change and lasting progress always come from within. From the magnificent potential inside us all. From the true glory and destiny of Universe speaking through all of our lives. In the final analysis the finest thing any of our leaders can do for us is to truly believe in each of us enough so that they inspire us to be more than we thought we could possibly become. To touch the common soul we all share. Each of us have the potential to leave behind our primitive state of mind and become one, whole golden new civilization together.

Together we can solve this insanity and change this shattering disintegration into magnificent cohesion. It is time you and I reach beyond our desperate, separate lives and stand together as one life force and do the impossible, hand in hand. We must learn to truly care for each other and carry the Human chain of life into eternity. Deep inside every one of us the light still flickers. The hope still endures. At last and finally it is up to us. We must make it through.

FROM every corner of our world the evidence is becoming stark and terrible. We appear to be headed into a dark night for the Human species. It is a shattering terror that is almost impossibly raw and brutal to face, and we seem helpless to halt this downward spiral. Not that we haven't raged against it. Not that we haven't moved heaven and Earth in herculean effort to try to escape, to find a way out. Our world is alive everywhere with the hope that we can. That the Human species will somehow survive. To the end there will always be that hope. In the lost darkness, in the chaos, in the raging, blind terror, brutal savagery of crushing fear that candle has always burned. Somehow it never dies. But it is not enough.

We need the chance to begin again. We need a chance to start over...fresh...somehow doing things differently...opening a door into a new Universe and a new Human dream. All of us desperately need to find a new way to be Human on this Earth.

Almost 60 years ago John F. Kennedy spoke of a "World of peace where the weak are safe, and the strong are just." He was a politician but his words and his dream live on.

His vision inspired us all to believe in a civilization where “Knowledge, not hate, is the passkey to the future.”³ Back then all of us lived in the hope for a future enlightened with cooperation and compassion, with room for tolerance and diversity. Each of us responded to his challenge that “No problem of Human destiny is beyond Human beings.”⁴ In that visionary and hopeful age we were beginning to understand that “Wisdom requires the long view.”⁵ And that blessed visionary and dreamer Martin Luther King also stood on the precipice of eternity bathed in glory and ministered us from that lonely mountaintop that “love is the supreme unifying principle of life.”⁶ And we believed in that vision. We believed in that dream, so many years ago. All of us...we did.

But we live in a different world, now. Since that horrid agony of their tragic, ruthless killings over half a century ago, our world has careened into lost darkness and abominable ignorance culminating into the diabolical, draconian madness of hate, fear, inhumanity and hopelessness that engulfs us all today.

Our life force desperately needs that “long view”, and that glory today. On the edge of the dark precipice of extinction and oblivion for the Human race, in this insanity that has become Human civilization in the 21st century, somehow you and I have to resurrect that vision and the hope to believe again that we mortals can transform the world and reach for the dream of peace and community for us all. We need a new vision and a new dream that will unite all of Humankind on Earth into a global life force to change and create a new Human destiny for all of our children’s children. We need to believe that together we can change the world again.

Change

HERE today we Humans seem to be on a disastrous collision course where civilization and our biosphere may not survive. Our lifetimes begin to cascade into desperation. There seems to be no way out. But this crescendo has been building for forever. This drama has been scripted from the start. It has simply been a matter of time. We must begin to see that these times are momentous and of monumental importance. And this crucial moment in all Human history has been a long time coming.

Etched forever into the saga of Universe is an indestructible truth that we can no longer turn away from, but must face full on in this “age of consequences.”⁷ It is the lesson of life, and eternity. It is what Universe means. We must play out our part. We must bring the Human dream home. We have always secretly known that Universe would one day summon the life spirit inside us to a final confrontation. A confrontation with ourselves. The final challenge to be what we were created to become. Deep inside in the heart center we have known that there will come a point where Humankind and Universe itself will be poised finally on the fulcrum of eternity, on the threshold of total oblivion, or a new dawn...a new dream.⁸ This is that point. This is that dream.

But hopes and dreams are not enough to save us now. There is a challenge here. There is a responsibility, buried here, to the valiant lives and magnificent potential of every Human being throughout the eons that has ever walked this Earth. We must find the higher ground. We must navigate through this monstrous and savage darkness to the light. We, and every courageous, valiant leader and dreamer in our past have failed to truly change our Human world because, in truth, we had no idea how deep and massive that change ultimately had to be.

All the evidence today points to the reality that we are at a point of transformational change as a species and life force now, and the scope of that profound and outrageous challenge is beyond any precedent, pattern or convention that has ever existed before.⁹ Simple adjustments, formula change or minor surgery are of no use to us now. With our very survival in peril, we must wake up to the incredible and outrageous truth that things have reached a point of no return, and only staggering and cataclysmic re-orientation have any hope now. You and I have to see things as they really are and finally comprehend that:

YOU CAN'T CHANGE ANYTHING NOW...UNLESS, AND UNTIL YOU CHANGE EVERYTHING.

As a life force we call this point of massive and monstrous total change “Metamorphosis”. This is where Humankind is now. We are all poised on the threshold of a metamorphosis, beyond which nothing will remain the same.¹⁰

If Humankind is to survive, everything must change. Like the incomparable change of a caterpillar to a butterfly, we must begin to open our minds to embrace incomprehensible and outrageous ideas that have never seen the light of day in our minds. Like seeing the blue jewel of Earth from thousands of miles in space, or somehow reaching the impossible vantage point of witnessing this tortured and tragic moment in Human history from hundreds and hundreds of years into the future, we mortal Humans today have to see things differently, and to evolve a new way for the Human mind to understand life, and Universe itself.¹¹ Together we have to change everything. Hand in hand, we have to create a metamorphosis of the Human mind.

Together

See things as they really are.

See beyond illusion and prehistoric ignorance.

Stand and face the unspeakable truth.

Find what the real challenge is.

Gather together and envision the future beyond it, how it one day will be.

Believe in it...and make it so.

WHERE DO WE BEGIN?

THERE is a crucial lesson you and I have to learn if we are to reach this incomprehensible metamorphosis and to truly transform our Human civilization. We must begin to see that the crisis approaching us all is so catastrophic, so immense and beyond anything Humankind has ever faced on this planet that the only way we will have any chance of success...the only way our life force will survive it, is if we can somehow find the way to face it together. All of us.

Unless our species can reach beyond ancient conflict, primal confrontation, discord, selfish greed and self-centered, blind ambition to come together- unless we can forge Humankind into a galvanized community on this planet to face the catastrophic crisis approaching, hand in hand as one united life force on this Earth- we will splinter and fall into extinction and oblivion. We have to learn to care for each other as instinctively and intensely as we now fanatically protect and treasure our own separate, private lives, or the Human chain of life will end. We must see beyond our selfish ignorance and finally understand that we can no longer save ourselves and escape alone. There is no longer anywhere to hide. We have to find the magnificent consensus and the sublime synthesis to absolutely and for all eternity...to truly care for other Human beings and all life on this planet. It is the challenge and the destiny of our age. Only if we can stand together as one. Hand in hand. For the first time ever on Earth. Red, Yellow, Black, White and Brown. Every man, woman and child. United as one life force to face the coming catastrophic crisis together. Without that indestructible and solid unity we will simply not survive.¹²

WE EITHER LIVE TOGETHER, OR DIE APART.

HUMAN BEINGS MUST LEARN TO TRULY CARE FOR EACH OTHER, OR HUMANKIND WILL PERISH FROM THIS EARTH.

See things as they really are.

The Primal Perspective

YOU and I in our lifetimes, today, must find the way to come together as one life force on Earth. We have to realize the truth that we have to somehow change everything and undergo, as a species, a total metamorphosis or we will not survive.

The question is, how do we change everything? What kind of change would open a door into a new reality beyond metamorphosis...like the caterpillar to the butterfly? What kind of change could that possibly be? What could we change that would open the door for Humankind, and create a new Human world on Earth?

The answer is:

CHANGE THE WAY WE THINK, ITSELF.

Change the way we find truth, meaning and reality in Universe. Change the patterns how we now understand, make sense of, and establish fundamental meaning, identity, design and truth in the world around us.

To begin to do this, we have to see things as they really are. We have to open our minds to some crucial lessons that are now hidden.

You and I must see that the fact that everywhere we turn today things are falling apart and tumbling into uncertainty, chaos, confusion and despair...in our environment, our governmental, economic and social systems; even in the world of science and theoretical physics...is undeniable proof that there is a fundamental and fatal problem in the way we relate to, understand and order our civilization and Universe around us.

We are not as smart as we think we are. We are not all-wise, omnipotent and truly objective. We really only find what we are looking for. And what we see, interpret and truly understand depends upon where we are looking from. Our individual situation, and our own physical, mental and emotional status determine most of all what we see, know and accept as truth in our lives.¹³ And if you expand this personal, private predisposition outward on a larger scale to Humankind, collectively what as a whole we have defined as truth, meaning and design in Universe actually depend upon an elemental and Primal Perspective that is completely subjective and unique to the Human species.

To find a different way. To see and discover a radical,¹⁴ new path into the future, we have to begin to see and think in new and radical ways that have never surfaced before. Things don't work anymore and our world is disintegrating around us because there is a secret, fatal flaw in the way our logical, rational minds function.

THERE IS A FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM WITH THE WAY WE THINK.

We have reached the limits of an ancient, prehistoric mindset. It is now destroying our world. All the order, rational logic and Universal laws we have created, and the entire structure of organized, philosophical and scientific truth we have built over centuries are not a valid representation of the elemental meaning and truth of Universe. We have got it wrong. Beneath all law, logic, science, reasoned and rational order there is a fatal flaw that we have unwittingly built everything upon. There is a hidden and secret Primal Perspective that insidiously corrupts every logical, rational and ordered thought we think.

Instead of truth, and valid and absolute universality, we have created and built something else. Something that appears valid and true only within the confines of this hidden Primal Perspective that founders our primitive awareness, but which is untrue and invalid anywhere else. It is fatally flawed and wrong from the eternal, perfect and absolute domain of Universe itself, beyond the horizon of our limited and primitive awareness. We have yet to discover and comprehend the real truth and meaning in Universe.¹⁵

Universe actually manifests and revolves around another truth...an eternal and absolute truth that we are presently oblivious to. But, all we can see is our flawed Primal Perspective. This elemental, secret and primary error is the reason our world is disintegrating around us. That catastrophic disintegration manifesting everywhere today in our tragic and tormented modern world is the evidence of that fatal flaw. You and I have yet to truly appreciate and recognized this. And our collective inability to see it is because the flaw has remained so subterranean, impenetrable and pervasive within the fabric of Human thought that it has been essentially invisible to us. It is hidden so deeply that it is visceral and systemic. It is founded into the very structure of the way we now think, reason and establish meaning, truth and identity in Universe. It is so close and so autonomic and instinctive that we simply cannot see it. But it is there. Look around. Witness how desperate and lost our world has become. That fatal flaw is there.

And we must begin to see that it is something that was primary and essential at the beginning. When the Human mind came out of the shadows far, far back in prehistory and thinking, logical and rational Human thought began it was composed and comprised around a fatal and invalid flaw. It was there at the beginning, and now is part of the foundation and structure of Human rational, logical thought itself. This is why it is almost impossible for us to see it now. But it is time that we Human beings living today in this disintegrating world begin to finally see it clearly, and somehow evolve beyond it.

When we do finally see it in crystal clear clarity, we will also understand the colossal ignorance beneath everything in our modern Human society. And once we recognize how deep that fatal ignorance goes, we will begin the evolution to a new Human world.

*See beyond illusion and prehistoric

The Secret Prehistoric Mystery

THAT fatal flaw that is destroying our modern civilization was there at the beginning. And so to truly journey hand in hand towards Human metamorphosis, we have to reach deep into the shadows and the phantoms long ago lurking in the darkness of prehistory. We have to search deep within ourselves today to find an error hidden there that was born at the beginning, in the raw, savage ignorance and the dark and unknown corners of our ancient primordial prehistory. A land and a time that has long since vanished into the hidden shadows of the past.

We have come so far from that ignorance and darkness. We have walked on the moon and reached among the stars. We have dreamed impossible dreams and made them come true. We communicate through the air. We bring Human beings back to life. We have conformed the vast unknown and unintelligibility of Universe into the precise and exact order of mathematics and scientific law. With art, music, lyrical language and spiritual inspiration we tread on the very sublime and mystical threshold of eternity itself. All around us the wonders and brilliance of science, technology, universal law, logic, reason and intelligence demonstrate a civilization on Earth that is incontestably unparalleled and magnificent.

But the unavoidable and disastrous fact is that in spite of this awesome and supreme magnificent structure of Human order and civilization, you and I are headed for the savage unknown of deep, dark and frightening waters.

We have to undergo a colossal sea change and do the impossible. We have to light that abominable and primordial darkness and uncover its trace. We have to find a secret and fatal flaw hidden deep within our modern minds that was crafted in a primeval age buried in antiquity. A flaw that essentially invalidates all the logic, science, technology and rational order our life force and civilization have created. And then we have to find a new way to think beyond that flaw and create a metamorphosis of the Human mind leading to a New Way to be Human on Earth.¹⁶ It is simply the challenge of our age. And there is no other way to survive unless we find that primordial secret...and find it hand in hand.

We are in this together, you and I. Like everyone else we have to live in this deeply troubled world, and somehow navigate through these tragic, traumatic, disjunctive, harsh and brutal times. We are being pulled every which way but loose and just staying alive and dealing with life takes almost everything we have to give. But somehow we have to find deep within us the will and the spirit to gather together and change this insanity we call civilization. We have to find the way to a better world for us all.

It is time we begin to understand that every courageous and dedicated Human life spent in valiant effort to halt the decline, and to seek to forever change the savage and corrupt, disintegrating world we live in will fail unless we can define a new vision and chart a new way to be Human forevermore on this Earth. And the only way we can all come together in our vast divergence is by galvanizing around a higher, more evolved synthesis of the true meaning, design and destiny of Universe that somehow precipitates into the collective mind of Humankind. Only in the evolution of a new vision and enlightenment, that by its very presence and creation transforms our civilization, can Human beings survive on this Earth. Nothing else will work. Everything else will fail without it. Our only chance as a species and a life force is to open that door.

Beneath every brilliant shining Human excellence, extraordinary genius, profound intellect and gifted Human life is secreted this elemental and primary flaw. The real problem that insidiously is destroying our civilization today is not selfish brutality, arrogance, greed, gross neglect or sinister evil. It is simply ignorance. A colossal ignorance that afflicts and infects us all.

And that pristine and primordial ignorance lurking deep within us all began long and long ago. How do we find it now? Where in the Unknown prehistoric mystery was it born? Where did it all begin?

Is there a trace, a vestige...a shimmering vague memory of it evidenced somewhere now? Can we begin the journey to reach beyond dark ignorance, find the path to Human metamorphosis and uncover a new way to be Human on Earth?

Yes we can.

Solitary One

WE know it well. Each of us separately and alone awake to it every morning. It courses through us for the full dimension of our existence. Now we call it life...consciousness. But it must have been the same back then, when early humanoids had no ability to give it a name. It is the same domain and dimension that in raw form every Human being that has ever swayed beneath our seemingly inviolable Sun has lived, and has eventually, through the ages, finally known insidiously and incontrovertibly. It is the subjective, ruthlessly savage and selfish, superficial, uni-dimensional, solitary and singular wild existence of living.

It is the primitive window through which we individually and in ultimate isolation inhabit and transpire in the magnificent mystery we call Universe. It is the manifestation of the “self”, our own impenetrably discrete and punctuate identity. It is the primal perspective of “solitary one” that absolutely centers and dominates what we think, see, experience and intimate in the cocoon each of us abide. It is the “circle of light”, totally within which you and I live our forever separate and unconsummated lives.

We suppose and imagine it is the same for us all. That vibrant, wild river of life that riots through me must be the very same raging river that ravages through you...it must be. But we simply do not know. We cannot now, nor have Humans ever known what another living, breathing “circle of light” is like. We imagine it must be the same. But our life force has never escaped the domain of “solitary one”, that each of us live, to perfectly, completely and totally share and know another life.¹⁷

Every one of us live, perceive and experience through this fundamental lens of our own separate, private and eternally discrete existences. Everything is oriented and refracted through this elemental orientation. The forever discrete and isolated lives we lead form the essential rock that our fundamental truth and meaning cling to in the wild, incoherent torrent Universe beyond our sacred sanctuary of “solitary one.”¹⁸

Today, we all live, know and clearly recognize that separate, inviolable reality of “solitary one” and our own private “circle of light”. All of us. For every Human being on Earth today this is the one thing we know indelibly for certain without question, interpretation or confusion.

But has not always been so. It has not always been known.

Something Happened In The Ancient Darkness

IN the lost shadows of long and long ago, perhaps hundreds of thousands and even millions of years ago in the dark mystery of deep time, there is a secret there, hidden in the forgotten lives of early primeval Human beings.

Physically there was very little difference in those ancient humanoid ancestors. Their hearts beat, just like ours. They breathed, felt, heard and saw the world, more or less just as our senses do today. But an ancient mystery was secreted there in their minds. In the dim recesses of prehistoric thought, something incredible was beginning. What was it? What was that secret?

We know now that they were poised at the doorway of what was eventually to become “critical thinking.” In fairly rapid progression in terms of geological time they were soon to somehow develop the capacity to command, order and “animate” Universe.¹⁹ Somehow that primitive and prehistoric lifestyle was soon to be replaced with the dominance, mastery and logical, rational order and organization of what was once an incoherent and incomprehensible Universe. But something had to happen first.

There was a primeval, germinal event that preceded those momentous changes. Everything that has happened since then, the entire colossus of our technology, knowledge and civilization...every dimension and parameter that now makes us what we are and founders what Human beings have become, and why our modern world is disintegrating around us now began back then eons ago. Yet today no one knows or understands what it was. We have yet to recognize and appreciate that astounding, Earth-shaking event. It happened so very, very long ago and is buried in such dark and deep mystery that it is simply and purely unknown to us. Something outrageous and revolutionary came to life in their minds back then in the darkness.

The time has come for us to see it, and appreciate how crucial and astounding an event it was. Here in this modern, tormented world, if we are to find the fatal problem with the way we think. If we are to find a new way to be Human on Earth, we must uncover the primeval secret moment lost in primordial darkness when Human critical and logical thought began. And, although it lies forever buried in prehistory, it is possible to imagine what it was.

The Awakening

WE know it must have precipitated slowly over eons. In that raw, savage age besieged by global glaciers, and the ravages of starvation, scarcity and survival; clutching possessions and nuclear family; scavenging plants, tubers and carrion; migrating and foraging along traditional trails, following habits and customs, they lived harsh and brutal lives beyond our comprehension today. Cradled in the grand procession of the sing-song mesmerizing rhythm and splendor of nature, and enmeshed in the daily consuming drama of savage existence, prehistoric Human life passed days, lifetimes and eternities in bleak, unaware, uneventful regularity. But then, something incomprehensible occurred.

We cannot truly know how it happened. Perhaps it occurred in a process that slowly coalesced through eons from witnessing life and death in family members and other Human beings close to them. It may have crystallized into awareness from “near death”, induced or spontaneous “out of body”, dream-state, or mystical, spiritual experiences. It will always remain a mystery. But, it really does not matter. It happened.

Human beings became Self-aware.

For the first time ever the Human mind saw itself. And Human life on Earth was never the same again. An astounding and incredible threshold was passed and the recognition and identity of a “being”, “self” and a “lifetime” percolated to the surface of the primitive Human mind. Our civilization has reached a pinnacle as the dominant life force on this planet, and it is this seminal and amazing revelation that set it all in motion. And in that astounding process that is almost invisible to us, there was an insidious flaw which was confounded into the very foundation of what has become critical, logical thought. It was built into the elemental design...at the beginning. And that story has never been told.

It is a story that unfolded over thousands and thousands of years. It began when Human beings first began to see themselves and their manifested “circle of light” expressed in frame, dimension and perspective. In that primitive process and revelation that vantage point essentially resulted in the basic, primitive insight that their life was limited. It had a beginning and an ending. It was a separate, isolated and defined thing. The visceral, intrinsic and systemic essence of living, became absolutely and unquestionably known in relief and primeval composition for the first time on Earth for Human beings. But in that primitive revelation, not only did the Human mind achieve identity and self-awareness, something else happened in this process, this genesis. That revelation and awareness came at an immense cost.

The Unknown

IN that primitive Human mind the absolute, inviolable awareness of “self” and the identity of being became clear, incontrovertible and absolute only against the contrast and the context of recognizing that which was not lived or “self”, but which was Unknown.

From then onwards the Human mind saw itself, but it also forevermore acknowledged the disturbing and destructive presence of Unknown that was not “self.” They saw the malignant void, emptiness and eternal unintelligibility outside and beyond our “circle of light.” The primitive clarity and self-awareness of life and our own separate, discrete existence came with the stark, irrevocable confrontation with the Unknown beyond, and the terrifying specter of death...with the shattering incomprehensibility that we will die.

This was a catastrophic cleavage and absolute, devastating disconnection that could not, and would not be healed, then. It was a moment of eternal divergence and primal dichotomy that was absolute, impregnable and forever foreign and beyond prehistoric Human comprehension. That primal dichotomy remains to this day. It was the birth of inescapable, elemental duality in the constellation of primitive Human thought.

That Unknown generates terror deep inside us. It cuts us off, disconnects us and is simply destructive to the Human psyche. Deep down, it is the primal fear in Human existence. It is the primal fear of death, and its lethal shadow apparition in our lives... the terror of losing control, being abandoned and totally isolated and alone, of being forever and eternally outside of and disappearing into the devouring chaos and enigma of an inscrutable and alien Universe beyond. To this day this prehistoric ignorance and monstrous fear simply terrifies and destroys us.²⁰ That Primal Fear is undeniable, instinctive and almost automatic. We do not at present understand this, or know why.

It is possible that this blind, primal fear is an autonomic response to a sublime and unrecognized synergistic principium of Universe that is beyond our present comprehension. To be broken out, dissevered and disconnected in such a mysteriously interwoven Universe would comprise a fatal ignorance, a mortal error and unforgivable wrong. Perhaps deep inside us somewhere is the invisible instinct that somehow, somehow we are supposed to know. That it is an intrinsic mandate ordained by the essential design of Universe itself. And our primitive inability to know, that not knowing consequently unleashes the terror of being outside and in diametric opposition, and leaves us road kill in the face of the secret, eternal power juggernaut that is the progression, continuity and destiny of Universe itself. Unable to manifest and see beyond that intolerable Unknown and the empty void and disconnection of death, the primitive mentality could then only respond with stark, blind and absolute terror. There could be no other relation from such an abysmal and primordial ignorance.

Human beings, then, since that dawning of self-awareness have been tormented with the emerging fear of death and the terrifying Unknown. And in that prehistoric ancient era this awakened, unleashed Primal Fear became overwhelming. Where once that fear only showed itself in instinctive “fight or flight” terror at the moment of incipient threat or predatory disaster, following the birth of awareness that fleeting momentary fear turned into an all-consuming unending and deep foreboding that subliminally infected every aspect of Human thought and existence. That haunting primal terror then spread to dominate and lurk in every corner of Human self-aware, vulnerable and mortal lives since those prehistoric and dark times.

Prehistoric Genius

AND so, that secret, prehistoric point where Humankind realized self-awareness was the fundamental moment in the development of critical, logical and rational thought for the Human life force. It was the terror and haunting fear of the Unknown and death itself, crystallizing in those primitive Human minds, that forced those prehistoric Human minds to create and develop “critical” thought to shield and protect us. The urge to somehow reach beyond our known lives and force an unwieldy primitive mind to puzzle out, conquer and bring that terrifying Unknown into the secure and known safety of our own private, solitary and discrete “circles of light” was the dynamic catalyst and fulminating genesis that began the Human journey towards rational and ordered thought. Back there in the mystery shadow of ancient prehistory this is how and where it began. And this also is where the secret flaw is hidden. To truly change our world, escape extinction and oblivion and create a New Way to be Human on Earth here is where we must begin.

Besieged and terrorized in the dark shadows of their minds by this monstrous fear of Unknown and the overwhelming and disastrous confrontation with death, those early Humans were assaulted with an almost impossible challenge to their simple primitive mindsets. They were an amazing and incomparable life force. Every second of their brutal lives nothing stood between them and certain destruction except their indomitable will and invincible courage. It is impossible to conceive how totally alone and vulnerable they were. The strength it must have taken just to live and survive the daily onslaught of existence is simply beyond our modern day comprehension. We cannot imagine how inconceivably difficult it was then for them to stand alone in that savage age.

But somehow, with nothing but the inner strength to persist, to at all costs prevail, they stood their ground and stayed. To face it unsupported, solitary and alone was just the way they lived their valiant lives. It must have simply stormed through their pristine and artless lives, but just like they stood and faced the mastodons, giant saber-toothed cats and monstrous predators in that wild and savage time, they stood in that paralyzing fear day to day, year to year and century after century and found a way to conquer that wretched horror. They took on an impossible foe and battled that raw, incomprehensible terror, and their intrepid and indefatigable courage is why Humankind has survived to this day. Step by step they valiantly raged against that fear and terror...reaching out into that Unknown. And they created order, reason, logic and a syndrome of meaning out of an incoherent, overwhelming and terrifying world. You and I today stand upon that courageous platform of meaning, truth and design that they carved out from that savage chaos to survive in and make sense of our Universe today.

To those early, prehistoric Human beings the vast unintelligible Universe beyond was something impenetrable. It was a terrifying, overwhelming mystery beyond their ken, and there was no handhold, track or trail to penetrate that impervious and alien dimension. But they kept at it. They tossed it about in their gradually awakening minds, and they raged to puzzle it out. And eventually, probably through eons, in their typical indefatigable, valiant and unyielding struggle for existence they discovered a method to challenge that terrifying and incomprehensible Unknown. They developed a technique, and an approach that was unique and profound. And ever since that ancient revelation stirred and found root in prehistoric awareness it has become the way the Human mind has challenged and overcome the imponderable Unknown. It is an elemental method and procedure that is now basic, instinctive and automatic for us to challenge and overcome any Unknown in our modern age.

In that incredible revelation and evolution that occurred eons ago in the savage darkness of prehistory, the primeval Human mind grasped the astounding ability and the intensity to essentially interrupt the ceaseless waterfall and incomprehensible flowing continuity of alien, un-lived Universe and to consolidate it into excised, isolated, dis severed and discrete form. The primitive Human mind looked out upon what was once an impenetrable Universe and began to see isolated and discrete “things”, identities and objects. It was a process that Grahame Clark²¹ and Francisco Romero²² have labeled “Objectification.” This embryonic capacity and ability to conceive of a flowing, incomprehensible Universe as being broken into discernible parts and pieces was the pivotal and protogenic point where the prehistoric Human mind began to make sense of Universe. This is how and why the primitive Human mind learned to perceive and understand that wild, inscrutable reality beyond the domain of their separate, isolated and discrete lives. It was the crucial first step of prehistoric Human beings on the journey to critical, Human thought, and to conquer the terrifying Unknown. This is where it began.

Unable to see, perceive and understand the imponderable, terrifying and whole unknown, early Human beings grasped the ability to instead conceive and understand broken out and dissevered pieces and parts of that whole. Since ancient primordial times this is how Human beings constructed logical, rational and ordered thought.

A Discrete Universe

ALWAYS the part. Always the isolated, eternally discrete piece at the center, upon which truth, reality, meaning and design are constructed upon in Universe. It is simply how we make sense of Universe. In this complex, modern technological world it is the incredible concept of the elemental, discrete part hidden beneath everything that forms the primitive fabric of the way we think. And this astounding revelation took shape in prehistoric awareness and was patterned in primitive revelation after awakening to the identity and dimension our own solitary and discrete lives. Following that birth of “self”, awareness and the prehistoric recognition of our isolated, discrete lives we eventually framed all Universe into the reflected “solitary one” image of a mirrored Universe founded and centered everywhere upon that primeval discreteness to understand it. And upon that profound and astounding foundation logical, rational, and ordered thought began in the Human mind.

Because of that ancient genesis we modern Human beings implicitly see today in our mind’s eye a Universe of representation and discrete symbols, and manifested and isolated incidents, phenomenon and identities. Events. Objects. Names.

Words. Numbers. Mass. Elementary particles. Systems. Strings. Branes. Everything has a separate, distinct name, defined and discrete identity, and symbolic form. These ubiquitous objects, “things” and symbols are all simple derivatives from the virgin capacity and revolutionary idea of differentiating discreteness out of an incomprehensible and unknown mystery of Universe. It is how we truly understand all reality and existence beyond our “discrete” lives. It is how it all makes sense. We see, understand and know a Universe of divested, defined discrete essence because of the primordial awareness beneath everything foundering our syndrome of meaning...our own separate, broken out, aware, and forever discrete “solitary one” lives. Since an ancient and long forgotten age we have ignorantly existed in a prison whose walls have been defined by a Primal Perspective we have never truly realized. Chained in that web of discreteness and that fatally flawed Primal Perspective since that ancient birth of awareness we have ignorantly transpired in the lonely, solitary moment, that now, while the wild vibrant universe has raged and stormed all around our oblivious lives.

But we have never given up the struggle to escape those chains. The Human mind reached out into Universe and tried to tame that monstrous Unknown that challenged us. We strove to fix and place into Universe at large that now: the isolated point of our existence that we “live”.²³ And ever so slowly through the eons, once that exact, precise, defined moment of elemental, living discreteness was eventually fixed in Universe reflected from our primitive mindset, Human beings took that conceptualized, virtual point and envisioned a new constellation of thought and a reality and Universe firmly founded upon that living, discrete point of existence...that now.

Once that exact, precise, defined and discrete moment was captured in the primitive mindset and framework of reality, the Human mind eventually extended from that elemental, isolated, and virtual point into the past in memory and history, and into the ethereal beyond to capture the Unknown in the discretely defined form and tamed vision of the future. This profound insight then allowed for and generated the foresight, memory and the evolved thought necessary for the creation of physical, real and discrete tools and the envisioning of strategies, tactics and the organizational planning for future needs and demands for survival. It became the platform for the extended conceptual thought necessary to order, “animate” and control Universe.

From that primordial focus of elemental discreteness we eventually evolved the distinction and definition of ideas and concepts, and their manifestation in our primitive minds in discrete and symbolic form. The ability to focus totally upon the symbolic discrete part and constituent essence eventually provided for the articulated definition and expression of the defined concepts and symbols of communication, language and mathematics that the Human life force has built a world upon.

We obsess and center upon the piece, the part, the symbol and the discrete essence always and everywhere. We symbolize and name things and order all universe and “reality” in linear, singular order and precise, exact definition that strictly conforms to and centers upon the rigid limits of a prehistoric, flawed and Primal Perspective. From this primitive, logical and rational orientation and the discrete point of virtual existence, (the bubble of isolated, fixated diversion we “live”...the now), we pass the time of our lives in oblivious ignorance of what life and Universe truly mean. All the concepts and defined, symbolic ideas that now underlie all of our modern Human mindset were evolved from that Primal Perspective of our separate discrete lives, and the isolated part and fundamental discreteness identified at the center, everywhere.

It is possible to illuminate and track them all down to their secret connection to this ancient and prehistoric origin, but for now a brief look at the fundamental cardinal concepts of Mass, Space, Energy and Time will suffice.

Time, Mass, Space and Energy

THE Primal Perspective and the elemental focus and knowledge of the part at the center everywhere secretly underlie the idea of Universal Time. The impenetrable Universe became comprehensible and real to our primitive and primal awareness with the discrete moments, the world points and seconds of Time. These discrete, linearly arranged fragmentary instants are simply the mirror of our own discrete, “solitary one” lives. By using this mechanism the impermeable unknown of Universe and the visceral discrete reality of our isolated lives themselves become woven from the same cloth. Those “tics” of the clock, or the World Points punctuated within the silence that we acknowledge, perceive and hear, and that we identify and define as the passage of Time itself are simply mirror symbolic representations of our own separate, discrete “solitary one” lives. It is then the same, within our “circles of light” and without in the reflected Universe. The discrete moments, seconds of Time define the existence and the Unknown reality of Universe itself in the same theoretical dimension, Primal Perspective and fundamental discrete reality we exist in.²⁴ Universe is comprised of the identical, discrete “solitary one” design and the same primitive reality you and I live. The impenetrable continuity and mysterious destiny of an inscrutable Universe became interrupted, captured and determined with the comforting Primal Perspective of the discrete and broken and comprehensive moments of Time. Everywhere the same. Our discrete Human lives and discrete centered Universe. Time.

And long, long ago in our dark prehistory we differentiated the awareness of our primordial “self” and our discrete, separate life by contrasting it with its elemental, absolute opposition, “death.” And in the evolution of rational logic and order we eventually transposed this primal and fundamental opposition outward into a defined configuration placed into Universe that is simply a reflection of that elemental opposition; i.e. Mass and Space. Mass became the secret symbol and systemic representation of our ultimate living, separate, isolated and forever discrete existence;²⁵ the central, essential reality of our own isolated and self-aware lives.²⁶ And ultimately Space then eventually became the subliminal representation of the un-lived, unknown of death.²⁷²⁸²⁹ Once again, from our private Primal Perspective we tamed that wild Unknown of Universe and conformed it into the reflection of our prehistoric and primal reality. Universe manifested the same primary opposition and life/death mirrored composition of Human existence. Universe itself became identified in the same living Human configuration of “life and death” primary composition: Mass and Space.

Similarly, we differentiated and defined the symbolic, mysterious, intrinsic living force and “elan vital” of our discrete, isolated lives and extrapolated it outward into the vast unknown of Universe with the concept of universal Energy.³⁰ Humans finally began to understand, “animate” and know that terrifying, impenetrable Unknown of Universe with the concept of universal Energy. Universe, then, lived the equal and identical discrete mystery that we lived. It was the same. With this vibrant symbolic concept Universe comes alive with the same power and potential that vitiates and animates our lives.

We conceive and understand Universe as being centered upon discreteness everywhere. And then we animate that mirrored discreteness at the elemental center everywhere in Universe today with an incredible, discrete, symbolic concept of Energy that is simply a mirror of the life force within us all.

The Primal Ignorance

HERE, today in this modern scientific, technological age every Human being on this Earth must awaken to the fact that we fundamentally orient reality and center our elemental syndrome of meaning upon an ancient and prehistoric perspective that was born on Earth in the dark and primordial lives of early Human beings living in an age long forgotten. We must now see and recognize how truly ignorant we all are. We must begin to recognize the staggering fact that the totality of our ordered, logical and rational thought is insidiously founded upon a hidden, secretly flawed and ancient foundation. We see everything from the lens of our own primitive and isolated discrete lives. Not only does this prehistoric, flawed orientation contaminate all of our scientific, logical, rational thought and order, it also terminally restricts our window on Universe into self-absorbed, subjective, oblivious, narrow obsession and ruthlessly selfish and greedy total preoccupation with our own separate and selfish lives. It is why we cannot live together in peace³¹ on this Earth or truly care for each other. And this obsession with “self” and primordial discreteness means that everything is insidiously rooted upon the part and the truth is we have never truly been able to comprehend or understand the whole. We simply cannot solve the imponderable Unified Field, “whole” enigmatic mysteries and the divergent, multifaceted, simultaneous, nonlocal and non-discrete dimensions of our destabilizing biosphere, life, civilization and Universe because we are tragically and mortally imprisoned within this fatally flawed Primal Perspective. And our modern Human world is disintegrating around us because of this fatal ignorance.³²

The truth is that more and more Human beings on this Earth are living lives that are being consumed with fear. And we do not know, or understand why. The elemental discreteness which we project into Universe, and the Primal Perspective we have constructed all of our logical, rational world upon are invalid and do not truly define Universe. They are a mirage. Universe does not speak the language of discreteness and there is only one isolated region where discreteness has domain. Discreteness exists only in our primitive minds. There is no discreteness anywhere in Universe except in the thoughts and mental configurations of un-evolved Human beings, like you and me.

This unspeakable truth has been pounding upon our door for over a century now. We have just refused to hear. We call it uncertainty, non-linearity, non-locality, indeterminacy or violations of causality. But it really means that our quest to find the elemental particle or central discreteness in Universe has failed. We do not know what Universe means. We thought we had it all figured out, and had created a solid and safe order and a sanctuary of logic, critical thought and rational reason to protect us.

We were wrong.³³

Finding the Way Through

DEEP down this is the real reason why our world is falling apart around us now. This is why the wild terror Unknown and the Primal Fear are knocking at the gates again and, just as our ancient ancestors in that brutal hopeless ignorance they lived through in that forgotten age, we are all descending into that malevolent prehistoric dark horror, once more. That ghostly terror has returned from the darkness to savage us and unleash all the extreme rage, hate, violence, vengeance and ruthless, draconian inhumanity that is simply devouring our civilization in this world today.

Careening towards cosmic conflagration and oblivion, you and I must find something new, never before found in Human existence, to evolve beyond the darkness that once again threatens us. As a species and life force, just like in the wild unknown terror that confronted those courageous and valiant early humanoids long ago in ancient prehistory, we must find a way to reach beyond a ghastly horror that threatens to destroy us. You and I must stand together, puzzle out that terrifying Unknown and do the impossible once again.

There is no other way through. We must find the courage and will inside us to stand and stay for the future of the Human race. We cannot let the magnificent chain of Human life end. We must find a new way to think and to reason that will lead our species once again to survive and conquer this monstrous horror. The Universe is waiting for the Human mind and the Human species to evolve and reach metamorphosis. We are the guardians of an entire species and biosphere, the hope for our children's children and for the future destiny of all Humankind. Those valiant, indomitable and audacious ancestors somehow found an answer. They discovered and evolved something incredible, new and profound never even imagined before. Somehow those courageous primitive Human ancestors, in an age long forgotten, found the way through.

We must do the same.³⁴

It is what we do not know that terrifies us. The domain of the Unknown is the heartland and the source of the stark horror. That abominable, destructive ignorance devastates us. Somehow, our prehistoric inability to cross that imponderable and morbid Unknown has generated and incited the Primal Fear that simply dominates and devours our lives today. That deep, mortal fear of death and its lurking shadow, the terror of being isolated, helpless, abandoned, vulnerable, adrift and alone in the dark corners of our existence have always stalked Human life on this Earth. And in our primitive ignorance we still do not understand why it haunts and terrifies us. We still do not know.

Beneath all the savage, primitive violence, hate, fear and rage that now threaten to destroy our modern world in this 21st century there is something we can no longer hide from or ignore. All that rage, anger and morbid fear come from an ignorance and Primal Fear that we thought we buried and left behind us eons ago.

It is the wild and terrible fear of the secret, monstrous Unknown that has surfaced in the Human arena again on Earth. In this savage and terrifying age, we must gather together and find the light. There is a stark, unspeakable truth here that the Human species must now stand and face.

Stand and face the unspeakable truth.

What Do We Really Know?

WE have arrived at the point of destiny for our Human life force. We have been wandering around in the dark long enough. The Universe around us is everywhere demonstrating in indelible, absolute crystal clarity to us that the final chapter in the Human saga must be written. The time has come.

We must solve the puzzle and the ancient enigma. Here. Now.

Forever.

We must finally, at last and for all eternity begin to discover the mystery of what Universe truly means and why all of us have had life breathed into us. The Human mind must finally and forevermore rise above the terror of the Unknown and the dark horror of Death and evolve the magnificent vision and perfected Consciousness to transcend beyond it. Human beings on this Earth must find the way to live in an enlightened Universe without fear, and open the door to a New Way to be Human on Earth forevermore. The time has come. And to do this impossible thing we must, cost what it may, stand upon the truth and face the horror of our terrifying fears full on.

What do we really know in this Universe?

What are we absolutely CERTAIN of without dispute, translation, hesitation, question, symbolic representation or doubt?³⁵ We have seen how the fatally flawed Primal Perspective simply anchors all of our awareness to the one and only thing we know. We must stand and face the truth that we only truly know our own intense, visceral, vital and separate, “solitary one” lives.

We only know what we live.

Everything else is sadly only the illusion of knowledge. Everything else is real only in the mirrored reflection of approximation, conjecture, supposition, statistical probability and symbolic theoretical imagery. The apparition of elementary discreteness, that must exist in Universe to validate all of our logic and rational order, and for Universe and our lives themselves to make sense, simply does not exist.

You and I here in this terrifying age must face the stark, unspeakable truth that beyond the primary, elemental knowledge of our own forever discrete and isolated “circles of light” that each of us live...

WE DON'T REALLY KNOW ANYTHING ELSE AT ALL.

The Primal Fear

THE time has come for humankind to accept this shattering, devastating fact. And beneath this fundamental, catastrophic ignorance lurks another deeper truth that you and I, beyond illusion or distraction, must also reluctantly concede. It is another unspeakable truth that is perhaps most terrifying and devastating of all...

We still do not know, or truly understand death.

DEATH REMAINS THE SHATTERING, TERRIFYING
UNKNOWN THAT STILL IS THE PRIMAL FEAR HAUNTING
ALL OF OUR LIVES.

We theorize and we labour to have faith and believe, but we simply do not know what lies beyond that terrible void of death. That devastating and monstrous source of all fatal Unknown still lies beyond the reach of our primitive minds. We have evolved ever deepening embryonic faith and belief in something intangible beyond, and some of us have nurtured that spiritual power enough to venture deep into that Unknown mystery to the very threshold of divine enlightenment, alone in a solitary vision quest... but as a species and life force, collectively, that faith has not coalesced into true, concrete and absolute gnosis. We can sense spiritually and instinctively that something magnificent is there beyond death. We just have not been able to bring it out into the light of day and truly know it. Our Primitive minds simply do not yet understand or know how to journey beyond death, together as one life force.³⁶ To make the impossible, incredible journey to true metamorphosis of the human mind, we must take the first step towards that evolution and accept the monstrous truth that the terror of death still lurks and still dominates our lives today. And that in primitive, fatal ignorance we still do not know.

And there is one last, final unspeakable truth that is so deep, so treacherously venomous and mortally painful that we cannot even begin to contemplate it. It is simply too raw, too self-destructive that even crystallizing it into form in our primitive minds is almost suicidal.

Outside of, beneath and beyond the dominant Primal Perspective, Humankind has secretly been evolving another sublime attempt to conquer the Unknown. From a different orientation beyond the primitive focus and obsession with discreteness it is something that does not conform to or obey any logic or rational order. It is instead the undefined effort to find meaning and conquer the Unknown by reaching outside of ourselves to expand similar, common experience and familiarity, and to establish communion beyond our isolated and “solitary one” lives. It is our individual Human quest to truly know and be known in the vague, indistinct regions that we call emotion, spirituality and instinct. It involves reaching out into the Unknown beyond our separate, isolated selves in a mysterious process of empathy, faith, compassion and ever evolving communication to find true evidence in heaven and Earth that we are not alone.³⁷

Alone

THIS outwardness, and the secret and sublime effort to escape the prison of our solitary lives and end the lonely isolation and the primal fear of abandonment and death itself, has never stopped expanding and evolving in the Human mind-set. Primitive efforts to establish commonalities, similarities and rudimentary efforts at communication and shared experience slowly gave way to ever more intercommunication and primitive familiarity, trust and community. And these elements evolved through the eons into the close, warm and intimate dimensions of faith, deep empathy and compassion that fill our personal lives today.

But, here at this point of destiny for the Human species we must accept that this quest to find evidence that we are not alone, and to establish perfect, total communion outside of us has finally, and at last, failed.³⁸ We never stop trying to expand and perfect these intimate bonds of common connection and to truly love and be loved, and to strive to cross the threshold of our lonely lives to lose ourselves in another and become one spirit, never to be alone again. We never stop reaching out for that dream. Down deep where the river of life flows it is a Human dream yearning within us all to reach that ultimate point of perfect connection and unanimity. But it is time to face the truth that Human beings on this Earth have so far failed to reach that dream.

After ages and eons and lifetimes of desperate effort to communicate with, experience, share, love and know others and to also be known by them, the simple and shattering truth is that no one truly knows who we are inside. From within the confines of our own “circles of light” and a primitive, pre-historic mindset, Human beings have been unable to build a solid, absolute and real bridge across the beyond of Unknown to perfectly share life and escape our primitive, primal prison of “solitary one.” The unspeakable truth is that there is a deep intrinsic nowhere land inside of us all that cannot be reached.³⁹ No one ever truly scales those walls to set us free and discover who we really are inside. Each of us at last and finally find that in tragic sorrow and aching loneliness, we are always and evermore strangers to each other. We share tender commonalities and blessed similar coexistence and experience, but at last and finally, we do not know. We simply do not truly know each other as intensely, totally and completely as we know our own separate lives, and we are never truly known.

It is time that Humankind somehow finds the raw and magnificent courage to face this last, great unspeakable truth. We have to stand once again facing impossible odds. To gather together and, at last, finally carry our life force beyond that terrifying Unknown, we must find a way to join hands and face this truth that deep inside:

WE STILL LIVE OUR LIVES ALONE.

WE LIVE ALONE, WE DIE ALONE.

The Perfect Storm

WE live in this tragedy that assaults us mercilessly, and we hunger and persist heroically with hope, faith and valiant tenacity. As long as there is life within us we reach into that Unknown, trying to overcome this mortal, lonely agony. We must believe in each other and in ourselves enough to keep the faith within us all that the Human spirit will once again somehow triumph over terror and ignorance on this planet. It is that hope and that faith and common dream each of us cherish within that keeps us alive.

Humankind in this savage ruthless age has therefore journeyed into the perfect storm of terror and ignorance.

We only know what we live.

WE DON'T REALLY KNOW ANYTHING ELSE AT ALL.

We do not know, or truly understand death. It remains the shattering, terrifying UNKNOWN that still is the Primal Fear haunting all of our lives.

And finally, WE STILL LIVE OUR LIVES ALONE.

WE LIVE ALONE, WE DIE ALONE.

Although we try to overlook it today, all of us deep down live lives that are haunted, and overwhelmed by fear and stark terror buried beneath our common lives. We try desperately to hide from these mortal, devastating truths and ignore, divert and delude ourselves that we can escape that terror, find sanctuary in imperfect spirituality or Human community and compassion, or flee its merciless death grip while someone else suffers and dies in our place. At all costs, to the very end, and to our last gasp we are incapable of facing that horror directly. But every second we live on this planet every one of us are stalked and hunted, exposed, defenseless and vulnerable to the total power and control that the stark, Primal Fear has over our desperate lives. Somehow we must find the impossible courage and will to face these unspeakable truths.

In this wretched and disintegrating living nightmare of a world today the harsh reality is that there is no longer anywhere to hide. That ferocious terror now rages wild in all of our lives. And everywhere today in this brutal and savage world the lethal fallout from this is ravaging our world. Hate, rage, fear, abominable violence, savage brutality and draconian inhumanity are burying us alive in a world careening into lost madness and raw terror. No Human life today is safe from or immune to its insanity. Every Human life on this Earth is afflicted and infected with the same fatal ignorance and Primal Fear.

Everyone.

“They” are Human, Too

THEY walk the same Earth that we do. They breathe the same air. They have been given the gift of life as have we all. But they exist in the rarified stratosphere at the top, far beyond our common lives. They are the Supreme Power Elite that represent the climax phase of the ancient Human drive to conquer, dominate and triumph; to at all costs overcome and prevail, and to prevail gloriously. And that success and supremacy have come from rigorous refinement of a Primal Perspective and single-minded obsession and total focus upon its discrete manifestations: selfish interest, domain and empire. You and I, today, must see things differently. We must see “Oz” at last to finally be a simple Human being. For them to rise and stay at the top in an ignorant Human world obsessed with the Primal Perspective, we must truly understand what they have had to become...and what they have lost, and have had to sacrifice.

Their primal focus has become so perfected, consolidated and refined that everything beyond the arena of that absolute fixation upon survival to them has become vulnerable weakness, irrelevance and intolerable contamination of what always is a singular and primordial objective. Self-destructive doubt, extraneous compassion, the confusion and chaos of morality, emotion and spiritual and philosophical pathos cannot be allowed to enter into the arena. With every action and direction taken on this Earth they unequivocally believe they are fulfilling and aligning themselves with the ultimate truth, meaning and design of Universe. Deep within a primitive mindset, they are certain they are right. They are simply manifesting the mantra of “Survival of the fittest”, “might is right” and the secret, central truth of the Primal Perspective itself. In the savage jungle of primal fear and ignorance that is our world today, where enemies are everywhere and trust and benevolence are always deeply suspect, they confront the reality of this dogmatic mantra every day:

In a Human world of barbaric, primitive ignorance the only truth and lesson is that the “self” must be the God of Universe to survive.

They then are the extreme expression of an ancient Primal Perspective that evolved eons ago in the dark horror of pre-history. Like everything else in our fulminating world today, that extreme expression of the ancient primordial Primal Perspective has reached a desperately critical point today. Through the evolution of eons these Supreme Power Elite on Earth today have amassed staggering, unprecedented and incomprehensible wealth and power and have marshaled lethal and deadly force so omnipotent that they are poised on the threshold of total tyranny and iron-fisted control of all Human life on Earth. And in the arena of those Supreme Power Elite in our world today, it is the tragic combination of a secretly flawed and abominable, prehistoric ignorance with aberrant, obscene and monstrous wealth and power and diabolical technical capacity for destruction that have pushed our life force to the brink of annihilation and oblivion.⁴⁰

To turn Humankind back from that precipice and to survive we must begin to see that even within that staggering omniscience, omnipotent wealth and power and that draconian, deadly force of the Supreme Power Elite there is secreted the same dark and Primal Fear that haunts us all. Because they have divorced, isolated and distanced themselves so totally from the whole and become an empire and power unto themselves, and have so narrowed and constrained the spectrum of life itself with their single-minded obsession, they have lost connection to the sublime continuity that is Universe.

The only true validation and continuity they have is evidenced not only by their “solitary one” existence, but by all that they have amassed, and all that they dominate and have. From within the prehistoric ignorance of the Primal Perspective, what they have, and have become, is what they are. To lose that power and empire. To lose that strangle hold on their domain and what they have, is the same as death to them. They believe that in the very essence of their lives and their lifetimes they are manifesting the truth and destiny of what Universe itself means. Losing control, surrendering that power is then one and the same as losing their being, losing their connection to what Universe and they, themselves, mean. Outside and beyond that connection they are then abandoned, lost. They not only lose their place in and continuity with the meaning of Universe, they have lost who they are. They are therefore terrified and haunted by the same Human Primal Fear of abandonment, and the lost disappearance into the death void of oblivion. They are terrified of losing control.

This is why in this brutal world of ours today they have unleashed such naked aggression, violence, inhuman brutality and draconian, barbaric and merciless torture and iron-fisted macabre destruction to Human life and civilization. Why Humanity on Earth is witnessing the stark nightmare of death squads, ruthless militarized killing, extermination, the torture and destructive crippling of the soul and Humanity of helpless Human beings, innocent civilian and child deaths, and the mindless insanity of everywhere, endless bestial war. And this total madness is raging out of control, reaching catastrophic levels beyond belief as deadly confrontations with monstrous supreme power elite, mired in the hell of stark and Primal Fear themselves, and common, helpless Human beings terrified for basic survival itself on this disintegrating planet, reach the climax phase of a fatally flawed and ancient Primal Perspective.

Global Fools

IT will require a staggering and metamorphic transition to see such a shattering and terrifying cosmic conflagration and the blind, monstrous terror raging through all of our frantic lives from the sanctuary of a more highly evolved viewpoint beyond the suffocating clutches of our Primal Fear. Perhaps instead of witnessing this extreme crisis and the insanity perpetrated by a monstrous, Supreme Power Elite, we could instead see them as simply “Global Fools” tormented by the same primitive, mortal and fatal Primal ignorance and fear that lurks in all of our common lives. Perhaps even their ruthless and wretched inhumanity and the terrifying ignorance and colossal stupidity of being so transfixed and obsessed with maintaining control and tyranny, that they would hazard and destroy the order, community and biosphere that sustains Human life on Earth just to maintain their iron-fisted domination of our precious planet, would somehow begin to make sense. They are not supreme, omnipotent, divine, ordained and “chosen”. They are simply terrified “Global Fools”. They are simply mortal. They are simply Human. As are we all.

Each of us, when we are able, in our simple, common lives pursue materialism and consumerism and acquire things, “toys”, luxuries and accumulated property. It is a Human thing. It is a natural instinctive process and here in the modern First World where we are rich beyond any reference, we all do it. We acquire excessive property far beyond the bare minimal necessities we need to live and it gives us comfort and security, not only because it allays our simple fears of survival, but for something much more subtle and unsuspected. Transforming the alien unknown around us by capturing things, making them ours and “owning” them, like defining Universe in terms of discreteness or establishing tenuous connections and fragile, interwoven relationships with other Human beings in our Human world all perform the critical function of rendering the wild and primal Unknown into comforting and secure familiarity. They are the sum total of our primitive efforts to deal with and conquer the Primal Fear in all of our lives. By acquiring and “owning” things we somehow expand the isolated, primal circle of our “solitary one” lives and capture alien unknown outside the domain of our private “circles of light” and make that alien region known, and we are no longer so lost and alone. We call it status, affluence and we insidiously rate and rank one another by the amount of property that we “own.” But beneath everything they represent our mortal, Human primitive techniques to live in a contrived reality beyond terror and Primal Fear. To reach out into the terror Unknown of a wild and treacherous Universe and somehow make it safe and known. Even though they are cobbled, patchwork pastiches, they are all valiant efforts to render Universe into reflected imitation of the only real truth that we live and know. Those primitive illusions have given us shelter from the storm, safe in our primitive ignorance for eons. Until now.

The Supreme Power Elite on Earth and the monstrous, inhuman atrocities they are visiting upon Human beings everywhere on Earth all are at last simply Human actions. They are the same as you and I. They manifest the same Primal fear and ignorance that lurks deep within us all. It is just that, like everything else, those terrors and that fatal ignorance reach ultimate and extreme expression in the denatured, stratospheric dominion in which they abide. And taken to the ultimate extreme the drive to “own”, and the urge to control, conquer and dominate is never benign or casual. Never partial. Never restricted. So when that extreme, dominant obsession to conquer and “own” is applied to the arena of owning and controlling Human beings it always descends into and ultimately demands nothing less than total surrender and absolute subservience of the Human victims and the subjects that are conquered, controlled and “owned.”

Just as purchasing and “owning” things transforms them into acquisitions that belong to and become part of our beings themselves and are therefore known, in the extreme form of power and conquest of Human beings the Supreme Elite demand total obedience, subservience and enslavement of the subjects (“things”) that are controlled and “owned.” Anything else, any lack of total submission or subservient, blind obedience is evidence of toxic, alien Unknown and represents a lethal invasion of the Primal Fear within the sacred and solitary empire of their conquered domain of “self” and existence they control. It is therefore dealt with as fatal rebellion, revolt and alien invasion that threaten life itself, and must be crushed and destroyed. From the primitive and barbaric ignorance which they are the extreme expression of, to survive and obey the mantra of survival and the Primal Perspective that is the law of life for them, they have no other option to counteract the prehistoric, raw terror of losing control. Human beings must become enslaved, dehumanized and “owned.” And any revolt or rebellion unleashes the Primal Fear and must therefore be obliterated.

This is why the horrors and tragedies of inhuman savagery, abominable tyranny and agony still haunt our Human life force. It is why our history has been a saga of continual and cyclical periods of recurrent terror, hatred and violence, stark oppressive repression and bloody, desperate rebellion. It is always just a matter of time until the ruthless insanity of cosmic and catastrophic conflagration and mindless bestial rage and destruction ravage our desperate Human world again.

“Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor, Your Huddled Masses Yearning to Breathe Free.”⁴¹

THAT stealthy, insane horror stalks our civilization once more. All of us instinctively sense its deadly approach. Something unimaginable and abominable this way comes again. All the signs are there. It is coming. We all can feel it. You and I, we know. It is coming, soon.

The stage is set. There is just too much blind, primitive ignorance and raw, terrifying fear in our world today. The corruption is too deep. The power and control at the top too extreme and concentrated. Too total. Too omnipotent. The deadly force arrayed too draconian, overwhelming and unchallengeable. The vast extremes of polarized disparity simply reaching intolerable instability, just waiting for the momentary spark to inflame, torrent wild and unstoppable, like an incandescent white heat thunderbolt of destruction engulfing Human life on Earth in total hysterical, rabid insanity.

Ensnared in that abominable primal ignorance, the “global fools” are poised and ready, their iron fist of absolute deadly force suspended in air, waiting to crush and destroy everything.⁴² The militarized security forces and the riot police armed to the teeth. Ghastly draconian, murderous killing technology in place. The detention centers and concentration camps waiting. Gate key impregnable bunker sanctuaries and secret sustainable, survival biospheres contingent and provisioned to survive Armageddon. All the safety nets of jurisprudence, social contract and support, inalienable rights and the sanctity of freedom successfully shredded and left in tatters, blowing in the wind.

And the tempest tossed, wretched refuse of betrayed and broken Humanity in the streets. Nothing left but blind, naked hope, unable to forsake the dream of liberty and simple Human dignity that connects them to the destiny of Universe itself.⁴³ Clinging to each other, taking comfort in fervent unity, standing in the face of death, yet helpless and vulnerable against the terror of Primal Fear, in desperate and suicidal rebellion they are resigned to be driven to the kill zones and to be herded to awaiting extermination.

Everything is in place. All the tactics and strategies computed and set in stone. Any moment now Human ignorance and mortal fear will reach the tipping point and the apocalypse of rage, vengeance and hate will boil over and the cosmic conflagration will begin again. But this time the cycle will end. This time the ignorance and the terror will take us all over the edge, and nothing will stop it. There is simply no more room for tyranny, profit, power and privilege. “No more time to hate.”⁴⁴ No place left in this expectant Universe for ignorance that cannot evolve into magnificent metamorphosis.

Find what the real challenge is.

An Awakening New Human Genius On Earth

IF we could recognize that a primitive and fatally flawed Primal Perspective beneath all of our ordered world is the reason our civilization and biosphere are disintegrating today, we would finally begin to find a way out of this present death march to oblivion our life force is now chained to.

Once so very long ago ancient humans conceived and captured all universe around them into a new Human awareness of objects, “things”, symbols and “solitary one” reflected discreteness everywhere in Universe. This primitive revelation and genius began the genesis of Human thought and laid the foundation for a New Human world. For thousands and thousands of years that primeval giant leap in awareness led Humankind into the future. Now we desperately need something more.

Another radical and revolutionary transformation is growing beneath the surface of our deeply troubled, disintegrating and mortally challenged world. A new astonishing vision, wonder and magic beckons. We have to find the way to believe in ourselves and each other and gather together to create for the first time ever a world beyond ancient Primal Fear and wretched ignorance. You and I together in our simple, common lives must awaken to a new and astounding awareness. We must leave that flawed Primal Perspective behind and understand that the first step towards metamorphosis of the Human mind will happen when the ability to truly “share” the “solitary one” window of life each of us only know in isolation finally blossoms on Earth...a new and amazing awareness would begin, and we would open the door for Humankind into a magnificent and glorious renaissance.

We would then be able to see, experience and know existence and Universe from more than one narrow and primitive viewpoint. An avenue to envision “whole” (not part) solutions to the problems of our desperately troubled world today would open before us. It will also begin an astounding Human journey to understand and conquer our stark terror of death itself. We will know, because we have escaped the fatal bonds of living only one life, that something does persist and survive beyond. Life will expand and will no longer be encompassed with terror and Primal Fear. For the first time we will begin to see beyond that dark, horror void that has terrified us for all eternity. A New Way to be Human on Earth would begin.

We just have to discover a new, astounding and magnificent awareness growing deep within us and set it free, and recognize that a metamorphosis of the Human mind is once again happening here on Earth. We are now on the verge of another profound technique and awakening genius that will lead us into a new dimension beyond this tormented world of fear and ignorance. Instead of an ancient Primal Perspective that defined a universe of elemental discreteness, we would begin to see all isolated discreteness in Universe instead as sublime “potential.” It means transcending an ancient mindset and the prison of “solitary one” to a new and transcendental revelation and a new awareness of a Universe where life itself can be shared.

“Sharing” Life Itself

WE have discovered a fatal flaw hidden in the way we think. Using that profound and incredible insight we have arrived at the threshold of metamorphosis and a New Way to be Human on Earth. If we are careful and examine things in this new light we have a chance to escape oblivion and extinction... and begin again, in a different way.⁴⁶

You and I must somehow manage to step beyond that pre-historic ignorance and the Primal Fear to perceive that all of the chaos, horror and brutal inhumanity of this tragic age are actually a mammoth challenge to evolve a new way to think, and to Human survival on Earth. We must begin to suspect that there is another, higher awareness that our awakening minds have to puzzle out. Something else is hidden here that is very important. Stepping beyond and outside of that Primal Perspective perhaps we could see all the terror and disintegration of this tumultuous age from a more highly evolved viewpoint. Our inability to find elemental, particulate discreteness at the center of all reality and Universe, and the mirage that it has turned out to be can instead illuminate another significant and profound revelation, if we can look at it another way.

If we accept the fact that there is no true discreteness in Universe and that it is actually a primitive mirage, then perhaps the existence of our own separate, forever discrete and “solitary one” lives...the focus upon which the Primal Perspective is unequivocally and incontrovertibly anchored upon... is also a mirage. In other words, perhaps in a higher more evolved design and destiny of Universe we are not supposed to live separate and solitary lives. Perhaps it all means that there is another dimension, another door, a higher awareness that is yet to be found for our species.

It is therefore possible that all of this raw ignorance, wild terror and blind chaos devouring us today simply indicate that we are going the wrong way, that there is something else... something much more incredible we should all be doing with the gift of our lives. Perhaps we should look again at this disintegrating world around us today and see it differently. Perhaps it is just possible that Human life itself is not destined to be lived in primitive isolation. The hidden message here just may be that our discrete, lonely and primitive lives are actually meant to be shared.

Imagine that. Imagine what that really means. Imagine what a future that would illuminate. Imagine where that open door could lead. This then would become the true challenge to our species and to Human civilization itself. We must gather together and find the deep potential, promise and vision inside of us. We must as a life force believe in an impossible dream, join hands, stop hurting each other and answer this ultimate challenge of Universe:

HUMAN BEINGS MUST FIND THE WAY TO LEARN TO “SHARE” LIFE ITSELF.

An Impossible Dream

THE idea that one Human being can somehow escape beyond their own lives and know and perfectly “share” another life is outrageous. It seems to be simply an impossible and preposterous dream. Yet how impossible is it to theorize that primitive apes foraging in the trees may one day escape the bonds of Earth to walk on the moon, or to see with awakening eyes our splendid gossamer, blue jewel of a star from the darkness of deep space?

This book, and all these words have required a stark, ruthlessly sober and undistorted examination of just how hopeless and desperate the Human condition on Earth has become. It has demanded excruciating clarity, unspeakable truth and fearless acceptance of the harsh ultimatum that we are at the point of destiny for our Human life force and we either somehow create a metamorphosis of the Human mind and a New Way to be Human on Earth or suffer and die, reeling into horror and the lost blackness of extinction and oblivion.

The simple statement that Human beings are destined to one day completely and totally “share” the sublime and secret magnificence of living life itself is nothing less than outrageous, metamorphic and astounding. It is simply an impossible dream now beyond the horizon of imagination and our presently primitive awareness. First, it is a concept and a vision that is beyond the realm of possibility for us now. We cannot even imagine how it could be. And secondly, it is absurd and incomprehensible to entertain the thought that this simple idea will transform our disintegrating and tormented civilization and planet into a golden, gloried renaissance for Humankind. It is simply beyond belief that this simple evolutionary “giant leap” for Humankind will allow us to escape the horror of our tragic, frantic and terrified world and let us begin life on Earth again, in a different way.

Can it be true? Can it really be possible? From the dreamscape of the ages, and the story of Humankind that will one day be scribed into eternity, what really is possible for Human beings walking this Earth in our mortal, common lives today?

Consider, for a moment, if somehow by some cosmic miracle you and I were to be transported back through eons to the very point in ancient, primordial prehistory where those primitive humanoids were poised on the threshold of the birth of awareness and critical, logical and ordered thought. If we could, for a moment live along with them in that age, and were able to witness their lives and see them clearly from the vantage point of the eons, what would we see? How would we view things differently, from the wisdom garnered through the ages? To us, what would we recognize as unsuspected traces of magnificent potential that are possible, and one day will become the visions and dreams that will come true in this, our space-age dreamland of the future?

The Perspective of a New Human Dream

WE would know that the painted handprint etched eternally in stone, left there in the vastness of the desert is an ancient, prehistoric signal that those early Humans were beginning to identify and define their discrete “solitary one” selves. We would see it as early, primitive evidence of the birth of “self awareness”, where they were mentally becoming an isolated being and identity in their yet unfocused thoughts. We would hear the guttural sounds slowly defining in their social interactions and understand that they one day will refine and perfect, and in the future will become crystallized words, language and eventually concepts and intangible spoken ideas and myriad forms of metamorphic abilities to communicate. The scratching in the sand will become numbers and written symbols that will capture and contain objectified identities into ordered taxonomy and hierarchy composed in the interwoven fabric of logic and ordered form for an awakening Human mind. The bits of wood, bone and stone taken out of context in their prehistoric world and fashioned into crude tools, we would recognize as manifested objects and precursory constructs that will eventually evolve into machines and technological genius carrying Human imagination into the wonder of the stars. And in the forlorn trinkets and treasures buried with their companions in deep, tragic anguish we would witness embryonic evidence of Human emotion, empathy and compassion and the simple unifying beginnings of love in the Human saga on Earth.

All this we would see. All this we would recognize as dreams and visions destined to become real. Those precious things that we now know are true and possible. You and I, we would know this, because we live this truth. But those ancient and tormented Human beings living that mystery existence long and long ago in the darkness of deep time, they could not know. They would not have any true idea what really is possible.

Just so if by some miracle Human future beings were to be able to witness and see us now, here in this mortally tortured world we live in today. What would they see and know and recognize as possible in the jangled, fractious chaos we walk through in this monstrous insanity of Human existence in this 21st century? What would they recognize? What, from the wonder age so very far in the distant glory that their incomprehensible life form and transformed civilization has become, will they see as evidence of dreams that one day will come true?

From beyond the serenade of the eons they will see us for who we really are. They will wonder about us, as we now do when we unearth traces of our ancient primordial ancestors today how, like them, you and I here in these desperate, primitive times managed to hold life together beneath the unbearable burden of the sheer terror and pathetic ignorance that shreds and savages the hope and faith we desperately need to carry on in our wretched lives. They will simply marvel at our magnificent courage and the true and valiant walking legends that each of us simply are.

And they will see in sharp, clear relief that the stray and crude efforts at human interconnection, communication and convergence that we attempt in subtle social and interpersonal expression or in symbolic words, messages, images and electromagnetic packets flung outside of ourselves into the Unknown void that now tragically isolates us, are all infantile beginnings of something far beyond our present primitive comprehension. They will understand that the fledgling intimations we have of a strange and entangled Universe, telepathy, extra-sensory perception and divine spiritual enlightenment, Bliss and an Unshakable Deliverance of the Human Mind into Holy Transcendence and Paradise are clear, unmistakable evidence that we Human Beings in this Dark age are on the road to a transformation and awakening intimation of a secret, hidden Universal Consciousness and the birth of an unimaginably perfect form of advanced and exquisite communication that will consummately Unite our primitive life forms in a future Human renaissance and an exalted, splendedored civilization far beyond our present imagination.

They will know this because they will live in a Golden Glory Human existence in the future not only where life itself is shared and encompasses an awareness of beauty, perfection and magnificence we can now only dream about...but where they live and manifest an existence that is in perfect harmony with the sublime meaning and true destiny of Universe itself. Light years beyond the Primal Fear and prehistoric ignorance that consume our lives today, in a miracle that is simply beyond belief for you and I now, they will belong in the enlightened awareness and fearless, loving embrace of the supreme understanding of what Universe and life truly mean. And the thought of being outside and alone, and the primitive concept that things disappear forever and Die in Universe never even enters their sanctified and evolved Consciousness. Every second they are alive, every splendid fiber and essence that they are would continuously resonate and celebrate the fact that the Human Dream has finally come true on this Earth. In the prophetic and sacred words of Martin Luther King, the Universe and their joyful lives would endlessly ring with the song..."Free at last, Free at last. Thank God Almighty, we are free at last." And that song would never end.

Imagine such a dream.

Universe

BUT that miraculous, awakening insight into what really is possible, and that song and that golden civilization of the future are only just that, now...just a dream. A dream beyond reach, and a song that is silenced because of the horror and tragedy that is our primitive, Human world today. Today, we lack the vision to make that impossible dream come true, to make it real and possible. We must find a new vision within us, a new way to think, and a New Way to be Human on Earth. That new vision must begin with seeing everything around us differently, and evolving a new understanding of the mystery that Universe really is.

Beyond the Primal Perspective, our prehistoric ignorance and the Primal Fear, what really is Universe? What secret mystery does that terrifying Unknown really conceal? If we could stand outside of all that darkness and dare to really challenge that Unknown. If we could believe that we are destined for magnificence and that we really carry that Golden dream of a metamorphosis and a future Human renaissance somewhere deep inside us, what would we really see?

What does Universe really mean?

Beyond our prehistoric ignorance, Universe is a mystery that we do not really comprehend. Our primitive minds simply cannot understand the language it speaks and the rhythmic, siren song that it is. It lies beyond the horizon and even beyond our imagination now, and it is so much more than our mathematical, statistical, linear, and discrete imagery of it. There is a fundamental focus to Universe we have yet to countenance. In Universe, somehow, everything is a part of everything else. There is nothing anywhere that is unconnected or apart. The direction, flow and evolution of Universe always follow the path of interaction; seeking to join, interrelate and belong.

Universe is a CONTINUUM where everything is inexplicably flowing in a cohesive rhythm and harmony towards the communion and culmination of an ultimate objective. We must now understand this destined objective of Universe to be perfect Union. This ultimate and perfect Union cannot now be presently conceptualized in our primitive minds. It is perfect Union itself that is the orchestrating dimension that all Universe is truly created and composed around. And, although our discrete centered awareness cannot truly configure that holistic, perfect Union, we must now begin to form the almost incomprehensible and transcendent idea that this perfect dimension of Union is yet an unfulfilled dream. It is not yet born. It does not yet exist in Universe anywhere, and has never yet been created. All Universe then is an expression, a manifestation, a creation that exists to progress towards the as yet unborn state of Union.

What is this Union?

It is a state of perfect continuity, concordance and transcendent harmony that has never before existed in all creation. Throughout our Human history, vague intimations of this yet unreached and unknown, perfect dimension, reality and existence have surfaced in all walks of religion, mysticism and spiritual belief. Heaven. Paradise. Nirvana.⁴⁷ Gnosis.⁴⁸ Samahdi.⁴⁹ Satori⁵⁰,etc. The final state of this perfect Union and the secret destiny of Universe is the ultimate consummation of all these unrealized and sublime visions, beliefs and dreams, and its promise, destiny and image have been secretly stamped and branded upon all creation. The crucial point is that this Union has yet to be evolved. It does not yet exist, and has never yet existed in all creation. It is yet unborn. If we accept and can picture such a peculiar and mysterious Universe in the carousel of our minds, perhaps we can begin to envision the remarkable concept that it is this combined contrast of both the irreversible, inescapable inclination (this absolute CONTINUUM) with the unalterable qualification (that this perfect, absolute Union is yet unconsummated and yet unborn in all creation and eternity)... that is the real source of what we primitively conceive of as duality and dichotomy in our modern world around us today. Perhaps it is time that we begin to make this astonishing quantum leap in our awakening Human awareness.

The Continuum

WE can also then consider that every component in Universe would instinctively align completely with this CONTINUUM and is imprinted with the instinctive and autonomic inclination towards this as yet unborn final, absolute and consummate Union. This secret, inclining orientation of this sublime CONTINUUM to Union would then be the impetus and momentum in Universe that causes life to unify and “grow” outward into the unknown and to multiply and promulgate. Powering the Sun and the stars, it would be the reason that light shines and the world turns. And why love is eternal. It would orient plants, sending roots down and leaves up, how migratory birds cross imponderable distances, and why cells divide. It then explains the osmotic balance of metabolism, theories of Gaia and Endosymbiosis, the mysterious coordination of hive mind, bird flocking and herd behavior, and why living growth accords so consistently to form.⁵¹

Universe is the womb of Union. And somehow in the mysterious panoply of Universe and in an incomprehensible process and hidden genesis...this Union is secretly being born. All around us, this magnificent enigma that we call Universe has always throbbed and pulsed in rhythmic serenade with a bewitching melody that we have never truly heard clearly, or understood from within our primitive and Primal Perspective. That song and destiny of Universe is there for us to hear, if we would only stop and listen and look for it. The evidence is all around us, if we could only step beyond and outside of our “solitary one” primitive ignorance. It must be there. And it is.

Think about it. How would such a secret, sublime Universe and an instinctive everywhere indestructible and unrelenting CONTINUUM towards an unborn perfect Union present itself? Beyond our crude, primitive ignorance, what would it really be?

Well, it would appear and manifest itself like this:

A continual, omnipresent progression and intrinsic flow manifested everywhere towards a perfect unborn Union, (the Universal CONTINUUM) that ultimately must reach an absolute barrier, a limit, (the incomplete, unborn capacity, potential and ability in Universe to presently create and reach Union.)

This “flow” would then turn into its mirror relationship (which we would primitively view as a counter flow in the opposite direction, or a retreat). This retreat, because of the all-pervasive and everywhere inescapable, eternal CONTINUUM must eventually, once again, become re-oriented towards and obey the absolute objective of ultimate, perfect Union of all creation. And this primordial and elemental rhythm would repeat and repeat endlessly until, in a dimension unimaginable, a metamorphic threshold would be surpassed and perfect, total Union would somehow become born for the first time in all creation. From our Primal Perspective we could only ignorantly see this destined, divine flowing rhythm in the flawed terms of “opposition” and elemental “duality.”

The Enduring, Faithful, Rhythmic Harmony of a Living Universe

THIS fundamental, cyclic periodicity would be the most basic and rudimentary form that such a transcendental Universe could be expressed in. This elemental, faithful, rhythmic harmony, not elementary particles or discreteness,⁵² would be the basic “building block” of Universe in a new and metamorphic perspective of the true meaning, design and destiny of Universe. This rhythmic cycle at the heart, center would then form an essential flowing “alive” throbbing rhythmicity which Universe would manifest everywhere. It would be in the rhythm of the waves, the symmetry of atomic and stellar regularities and the biosystems of life itself. It would be why poems have to rhyme, and it would be the heartbeat song pulsing through all of our veins. It would be the living flow, rhythm and continuity manifested at the center of reality and existence everywhere. This enduring, faithful, rhythmic harmony (EFRH) would be the true “celestial music”⁵³ and cyclic “Arrow” of a destined Universe hiding beneath the primitive world of seemingly predictable linearity, discreteness and the primitive concept of Time that you and I now build our flawed, synthetic world around. It is the deep beat and pulse throbbing inside us all, one and the same. It is the unmistakable, eternal evidence that Universe is destined for magnificent and perfect Union, all around us everywhere.

And because both these intrinsic components of Universe (i.e. the CONTINUUM to Union, and the present Universal incapacity to create this Union) would appear to present as constants in the grand eternal scheme of such an expectant, awaiting Universe, such cycles would take on the appearance of regularity. This would form the unsuspected, secret source for the perceived eternal predictability of nature from which our entire civilization of law, science, technology and order have been built upon.

We set out together to change the world. To find a New Way to be Human on Earth. To find the fatal problem that is destroying our world and to set it right. Capturing the hope, faith and belief in a better world for us all, we reached into the darkness trying to find a way out for our children's children to survive and grow into a new world and a new Human civilization in a future now beyond our imagination.

This radical and revolutionary new vision of Universe is beyond anything yet formulated in all Human history. It is a Universe yet unborn. Yet it cracks the egg of convention and established order, safety and sanctuary that now holds reality together for our infantile and primitive mindset. It represents an open door waiting for us, but we must step over and beyond every custom, fact, law and tradition that once validated truth and meaning and reality itself to walk through that door. We now have the chance to start Human life on this Earth again. We have the chance to see things completely differently and astonishingly new, as newborn babes must view the raw and astounding world of living, breathing awe in the first birthing moments of awakening childbirth.

The Universal Consciousness

IN such a radical, new and revolutionary Universe every “potential” is precious, vital and priceless valuable. Not only does such a sublime and magnificent CONTINUUM incline and command every essence and every “potential” towards this ultimate perfect Union of all creation; every “potential” in such a Universe is critical to the ultimate destiny and Union of all creation. This is why the life inside us is so incalculably precious. It is absolutely precious because it is the “potential” inside us all for Union representing the Principium and the destiny of Universe itself. It must be kept Free to reach and “flow” towards Union. This is why the unyielding Human struggle and crusade for liberty, freedom, and the inalienable dignity, and rights of life itself cannot be crushed and will never die. This is why all life must become sacred, holy and sacrosanct. The gift of life we all share is simply the destiny of universe throbbing inside us all and it is the whisper of the indestructible convergence of Universe shining through and galvanizing all of our simple, common lives. This destiny that speaks through us all is not something written in a book, or scribed into law, or a democratic ideal or ideological abstraction, it is the Principium of Universe. It is what Universe means. It is something that is simply larger than life itself. And one day. One day soon all Earth will ring with the symphony of Human Freedom and Union all over this Earth. And all Life in Universe will become sacred, precious and possessed with inalienable and sacrosanct value and cherished above all else. And each of us will step into a new Human world.

This then is the cosmic awakening that is emerging in the collective Human mind today in this deeply confused, disjunctive and tormented world. All of us are beginning to realize exactly what it is that is happening here. We are beginning to suspect the secret destiny of Universe that we are all exquisitely and viscerally involved in. That awakening revolutionary awareness is the distant light leading Humankind out of ancient, primordial and dark tyranny and ignorance. And there is much more day to dawn.⁵⁴

We feel that CONTINUUM and the secret Universal everywhere omnipresent drive to Union deep within us. It is emblazoned on the essence we are and intertwined with our lives themselves. This CONTINUUM is therefore an expression (witnessed by the Enduring, Faithful, Rhythmic Harmony everywhere inclining towards unborn Union) of the Universal “Consciousness” that now lies beyond the grasp of our primitive thought and syndrome of meaning. It is this Universal Consciousness,⁵⁵ not discreteness, “self” or matter, which is the secret, underlying essence and source of all meaning, truth, destiny and design of this mysterious Universe. It is the “ground” of all being and existence. It is this “Consciousness” which actually defines us and is really the Truth and concordance of Universe flowing through us and speaking through our lives. It is precisely this sacred connection and Unanimity with the vital, intrinsic CONTINUUM of Universe that gives us life. It is why this life, this “Consciousness” is finally all that we really know.

Universe Is the Womb of Union

THE Universe of Mass, Space, Time and Energy, the Laws and defined order of Science and the logic of Philosophy and a Universe defined by discreteness are all invalid apparitions of a Primal Perspective that is fatally flawed and must be replaced by a higher awareness. Universe and our lives themselves must be seen to be part of an Enduring, Faithful, Rhythmic Harmony that is everywhere expressed as a CONTINUUM to a one day perfect, yet unborn Union of all creation. All that we see, know, envision and dream are simply expressed potentials for Union. Together, we all are taking a visionary, metamorphic step into a New Way to be Human on Earth. We are all evolving a new Human dream. There is no discreteness, only potential. And that potential at the center of our lives, that storms eternally towards Union, is indestructible. Beyond our Primal Fear and prehistoric ignorance you and I are awakening to a higher, Universal Consciousness. This new, evolved awareness will open up a new Human Civilization for all our children's children. And we will survive, prosper and grow into a glorious future.

And, finally, there is one last challenge we must overcome.

There is one more tragic thing holding us back from metamorphosis. We have to see clearly, finally comprehend and evolve beyond our Primal Fear and the mortal terror that still haunts all of our lives.

What really is it? Why are we so blindly and totally terrified of Death? Why so afraid of any ghost or shadow of it, and so vulnerable to the threats and intimidations of power and tyranny? How can we possibly together find a path to higher ground, rise above the darkness and escape that stark terror? What is that Fear? What really is the Unknown?

If Universe is the womb of Union. And if absolutely everything in this Universe is a “potential” for that perfect, yet unborn Union, and is aligned, imbued and consumed by this CONTINUUM, then nothing can exist outside of and beyond that flow and that inclination, attraction and gravitation to Union. According to and obeying that CONTINUUM would constitute the fundamental Principium of all Universe that cannot be violated. Nothing can exist un-infused or un-consumed by the unalterable and inviolable evolution towards that yet unconsummated perfect Union.

Consider then if a “potential” in such an extraordinary Universe were to find itself outside of that CONTINUUM and unable to obey that ultimate Principium of Universe? For instance, suppose there was a “potential” (say Human life forms) that existed in a primitive limbo where they had gained a shadowy, instinctive awareness of this secret absolute Universal Consciousness and CONTINUUM, but had not evolved and perfected the ability to conform or obey that absolute Principium (specifically because they were thwarted and hopelessly blocked by primitive ignorance and the unknown dark void of Death). How would this all powerful, all-consuming command and Principium of such a Universe then be interpreted or vaguely sensed by those primitive creatures?

Violating the Universal Principium

WHAT form would the violation of the absolute Principium of Universe then take?

The answer is simply fear. It would appear as an indefinable and stark foreboding and invisible force that permeated every aspect of their lives. Something towering and formless that would totally consume and dominate their lives, yet they had no idea what it was. Deep inside it would be a nameless terror bent upon destroying them, unless they surrendered and obeyed its command. Yet they had no idea what to do, or how to escape its power and solve the monstrous enigma now devouring their raw and primitive existence. In that toxic and totally alien state, cut off and unable to enjoin in the destiny of Universe they would be cast reeling into blind, wild and inconsolable terror. So, that blind and wild, terrible Primal Fear is subliminally and secretly caused by our inability to obey the CONTINUUM to Union, and because we are in violation of the destiny of Universe itself. If we want to live without that Primal Fear, and never be afraid again, we have to evolve beyond our prehistoric ignorance and the terrifying enigma of Death. We must learn to share life. We would then be able to “flow” and exist in a Universe without fear.

Since the birth of self-awareness sensed in Primal Perspective and flawed instinct we have been violating that Universal Principium. And we have had to endure that wild terror in ignorance because in our primordial evolution we could not possibly have known then that even this terrifying, mortal fear is simply another form that Universe and the commanding Principium takes in the indestructible, inviolable CONTINUUM to Union. We simply could not have known that this horrible Primal Fear would drive us eventually beyond dark, prehistoric ignorance and a fatally flawed Primal Perspective to the threshold of Human renaissance, where life itself can be shared, and where we finally evolve a New Way to be Human on Earth. Even now it is almost incomprehensible that beneath all this chaos, savage brutality and ruthless inhumanity shattering our world today, that something pure and profoundly magnificent is evolving at the horizon of an awakening newborn awareness.

In that awakening metamorphosis we are learning the lesson that this enduring, faithful, rhythmic harmony of Universe beats within us, and that we are simply children and “potentials” in that Universe.⁵⁶ We must learn that we really do belong. The Unknown is simply ignorance, ignorance of the CONTINUUM and the womb of Union that Universe is. And that deep Primal Fear of the Unknown and Death are really the divine impetus driving us to the threshold of a metamorphosis of the Human mind, and beyond. In that long and haunting darkness, we could not have seen and understood this, until we as a life force ultimately evolved to where we are finally ready to transcend this point of metamorphosis.

And most critically and vital of all, we could not have known that the only way for our besieged and tragically haunted life force to escape the Primal Fear that dominates and suffocates all of our lives is by evolving the metamorphic capacity to “share” life itself. It was just not possible through all those savage eons to know this truth. Now, we can begin to understand.

Living the Dream

YOU and I can now evolve the picture of a dynamic and profound Universe different than anything yet conceived in Human history. That ultimate, perfect Union must involve everything. In such a new reality nothing can truly be left behind, outside of and abandoned. It is like the Marines. Nobody gets left behind, or Union cannot be created. Every essence and potential in such a splendid CONTINUUM is stamped with that inviolable drive to Union, is invaluable and inalienable. In such a Universe nothing can really ever end. Nothing can really be lost. Because we can now envision such a CONTINUUM and that magnificent dream of one day Perfect Union, it is now possible to escape the dark terror in our minds. It would seem that there is nothing left to fear.

The problem is, of course, that although theoretically this perhaps all makes sense, we cannot really feel it. All these words and concepts are simply not enough. It is not yet real to us. We simply do not know. As we have concluded, we only know what we live.

To finally overcome the Primal Fear that paralyzes, destroys and cripples us we have to find a way to truly know that this Primal fear is really an illusion. We have to know that nothing really dies and is lost in this Universe, that all of us are truly on the threshold of a coming metamorphosis of the Human mind and a New Way to be Human on Earth. Beyond primitive ignorance we not only have to see things as they really are, we have to believe and know this completely. We have the vision now, we just have to live it.

As a life force you and I must now understand the truth that we will know all of this only when Human beings can evolve the capacity to “share” life. We will then have discovered the key to unlock the door to know and live the truth of what Universe really means and why life and “Consciousness” have been breathed into us. And all of us will know what this Universal Consciousness means and the destiny of Universe will then become embraced and manifested by each of our connected and interwoven lives. Walking through that door we will enter into a new dimension and a New Way to be Human on Earth liberated from the abominable and crippling Primal Fear that has kept us all from becoming what we were born to become. We will never be alone again.

We will finally be set free. And Humankind will gather together, truly care for and stop hurting each other. All we have to do is find a way to “share” life together.

Somewhere you and I have to find that trail to higher ground in our common, difficult lives today. We must find a process and a genesis, first perhaps beginning in shared interrelationships or common experience and then progressing into a new dimension where Union is secretly in the process of being born. We will discover a higher, more perfect form of what we primitively call communication, and Human beings will transcend metamorphosis and leave this dark agony and the wretched, suffocating fear behind. Hand in hand Human beings will then walk into a new day.

How Do We Get From Here to There?

SO, how do you and I begin this journey to do this impossible thing...to learn to “share” life itself? How in this world do we get from here to there?⁵⁷ How do we finally and forevermore end the Prehistoric ignorance that we are confounded with? How do we evolve beyond that fatal failure and incapacity we perceive deep inside ourselves that will not allow us to escape and free the potential our lives? How do we escape that oblivious and insensitive abominable ignorance with which we flounder through our discrete, “solitary one” lives, and that keeps us so desperately and tragically alone?

Once again it is a matter of seeing things from a higher and more evolved perspective. What we are dealing with here is a fundamental and intransigent inability to reach outside of and beyond our own private “circles of light”; to share the experience of living itself in a process which is presently beyond our comprehension. In one sense what we would then be attempting to accomplish would be the creation of a type of Union between our “solitary one” and another separate existence. Does this sound familiar?

Perhaps there is a simple reason which we are overlooking here that would explain why this is something that has never happened in Human history before. Perhaps there is an insidious explanation why this is something that appears to be an elemental incapacity or inability that lies totally beyond our present Human abilities and comprehension.

We have uncovered the secret and sublime design of Universe. Universe everywhere, beyond our present primitive syndrome of meaning is an everywhere invincible, inviolable and relentless CONTINUUM to perfect and almost unimaginable Union, that has yet to be born. It is the recognition of this profound design and destiny of Universe that will begin to illuminate a New Way to be Human on Earth.

And we have focalized the first step for Humankind into that new Universe to be the evolution of the ability for Human beings to be able to “share” life itself. We must now begin to understand why that quantum leap in awareness is now, and has always been, a seemingly impossible transformation that appears to be forever beyond the range of Human capability.

We must ask ourselves: “Why?” Why does it seem to be such an impossible step?

And the answer is that this monumental leap in awareness that we see as “sharing” life actually involves the creation of a dimension of Union where two separate potentials on this Earth somehow create Union and become transcended into One. Fusion. Synthesis. Union. And we see this inability to Unify, and to “share” life as a tragic failure deep within us. We see it all as our fault. Once more, in our Prehistoric ignorance, we are wrong again.

If Universe is the Answer, What is the Question?

HOW do you create one Unified Theory to encompass and resolve all Universe?

How do sperm and egg coalesce, join to become One and Unify to create Life?

How do two separate Human Beings evolve a perfect form of Communication where Life becomes “shared” in perfect, coherent Unity?

How does this magnificent mystery of Universe transpire in a perfectly concordant CONTINUUM to evolve and create the ultimate destination of perfect, total Union?

SAME QUESTION.

What is that Question?

It is the Question that enshrouds the enigma that all Universe is. And it is the Question we must, as a life force, finally answer...or we will not and cannot survive.

This then is the Question of our age...the Question that all Universe is the Answer to:

“How is Pure, Perfect UNION being Created in this Universe?”

What we have discovered through the development of the unprecedented concepts revealed in these pages is that this vital Question cannot be answered from within the Primal Perspective that now distorts and defiles our vantage point. The answer will not come from the Scientists, traditional Philosophers, trained theoreticians and thinkers of our age. They are all looking the wrong way. It cannot happen in the laboratories, in the think tanks or boardrooms, in the hallowed halls of learning or in the precise, calibrated regimens of all established order, status quo and convention, or in solitary, private meditation and personal vision quest in this world.

Instead it will come from seeing outside of the Primal Perspective. It will come from a dimension beyond. The answer will be found in a place that no one has even thought to look for it. The answer is now approaching our life form from the subtle shadow beginnings now awakening in the backroads of our evolving minds in the dark ignorance now separating us. We just have to start searching for evidence of that secret mysterious process where this Union is being born, secreted in the overlooked, converging moments of all of our simple and common lives.

In Universe if this subliminal CONTINUUM to Union could be perceived in the physical dimension, it would be evidenced and be transpiring precisely at the fulcrum where we perceive that “things” (or potentials) interface and interact.

It must therefore be manifesting and happening where all the forces and sublime, destined power of Universe converge, in the dimension and locus where they meet. Beyond the domain of our primitive ignorance in an unsuspected and invisible arena, UNION must be being created all around us, but we simply do not recognize or understand. We cannot yet see.

If Union is truly in the process of being born in Universe, where should we begin to look?

The True Meaning of the Planck Scale Mysteries

IF we accept the astounding fact that Universe is the womb of Union, and is everywhere manifested as a CONTINUUM, we must begin to see that every interaction and relation we now primitively see as interface or collision in Universe actually conceal a doorway into another Universe beyond our present understanding. In this interconnection of these perceived “potentials”, in a dynamic and unsuspected process that transforms the configuration and essential identity (state) of them both, the embryonic, preliminary creation of Union must secretly be taking place. This astounding process is therefore happening unsuspected and invisible in a dimension beyond our present abilities to see it, and coalesce it into discrete, conceptual form.

At the infinitesimal, Planck scale we have so far deduced that such relations and events occur in violations of causality, and instantaneous and simultaneous mystery which somehow amalgamates and diffuses the boundaries of states and identities and renders discrete properties of “observer”, locality and linearity to be obscure, indeterminate and indefinitely relative. Something beyond common sense and logic is happening here.

This makes no sense from within our reality defined by the Primal Perspective, but may define the true mechanisms by which Universe actually mysteriously evolves towards Union. This incomprehensible process would also be occurring in the macro scale of biosystems and organisms themselves. It would happen where they interface and relate, where preliminary, precursory interaction and relationships progress and transform along a destined indeterminate CONTINUUM. In this process beyond causality and the Primal Perspective, “potentials” transcend separate states and align, coalesce and progress towards ultimate, metamorphic synthesis and incomparable Unification. In the Human dimension this could be the sublime process that mysteriously involves the miracle of birth or the secret promise of “sharing” life itself.

It is possible that with these profound concepts we are beginning to evolve an answer to the vital and critical Question of our age. The evidence of the CONTINUUM and the mysterious birth of Union could then be discovered and evidenced in all of our simple common lives. When we are reaching out, empathizing and caring for one another everywhere on this planet, we are immersing ourselves in the destiny, truth and secret meaning of Universe. We too are seeking Union. And this process has been unattainable and seemingly incomprehensible to us because what we are really up against is the enigma of Universe itself and a Consciousness and a CONTINUUM to Union that is in the process of becoming born. Our lives are part of the mystery and the same celestial magic and wonder that inclines the stars, and the truth and meaning of life and all Universe. We should be patient and forgive ourselves. In trying to “share” life, in the sacred and holy embrace of the destiny and power of Universe, you and I are doing what we were born to do... The impossible, hand in hand.

*Gather together and envision the future
beyond it, how it one day will be.*

The Hard Road Ahead For Us All

THE way ahead will not be easy for any one of us. Our world is still an ignorant, inhuman and brutal place. These are all beautiful and magnificent dreams of a better world to come. But there are dark and hopeless days ahead, and that deep fear will close in upon us all. We will hurt each other terribly. We will stumble and fall. The lesson will come hard and desperate, but it will come. The light will find us. We will learn to reach out and begin to truly care for each other. Darkness and fear and savage ignorance have brought us all to our knees before. But for the first time in all creation there is a dream we can gather around, something each of us can hold on to through these hopeless and ruthless days ahead. We are supposed to learn to "share" life. We are not separate and alone.⁵⁸ And the magic and joy of Universe is still there waiting, in the tormented and suffering Human being that is close to you and beside you now. There is sacred and holy work to be done. There is a flickering light leading us out of this darkness, and a distant shore you and I have to reach. We belong together and we can make it through. Hand in hand we can open that door. It is just a matter of time.

If there is one truth that will be carved in stone to be set forever through all eternity for the ages to come it is that there is no more room in this world today, and our embattled life force can no longer support greed, profit or a selfish, predatory and parasitic elite that lacks the evolved compassion to truly care for Human beings on this Earth, or the biosphere that sustains life itself. All of us are ignorant and are selfish fools. If only we could see that ignorance and find a way beyond the terror and fear and begin to care. If only you and I could stop hurting each other. If only we could.

For a while yet the Supreme Power Elite will fight it and try to hold back the tide and the avalanche of Universe that will soon grind, wither and banish that extreme, primitive ignorance away into oblivion. “Just so long, and long enough will being pay the rent of seem.”⁵⁹ You and I will have to pay the price and suffer through the horror of that abominable pain and Human agony caused by their colossal ignorance and the lesson that they refuse to learn. They will be the last fools on Earth to learn the eternal truth that we either live together, or die apart.

In this savage charade and ruthless, exploited inhuman agony today those Supreme Power elite are feasting upon Human “potential” and the Human heroic, “star cross’d”⁶⁰ drive to carry the potential inside us, and the tender circle of loved ones we care about, through this mortal agony. We are all doing what must be done, to reach beyond and find the light and the Union. It is that gullible, guileless, wide-eyed undying innocence and desperate dogged Potential and “will to become”⁶¹ of the Human masses that is the true gold, and the only source of lasting, eternal wealth in this tormented world. And “they” have unscrupulously and religiously mined that gold, and feasted upon that innocent “potential”, keeping the dreaming masses in chains and merciless exploitation for eons.

Grace

SEEN from within the ignorance of the Primal Perspective, that deadly exploitation of the innocent “potential” of desperate Human lives constitutes a monstrous, unforgivable evil. But from the eternal “long view” and the serenade of the eons, those monstrous Supreme Power Elite are simply fools doing what they always do, the only thing they know to do, and the only thing they have ever done...worship the God of “self”. First, last and always, they are saving the only thing that to them matters; “solitary one.” It is simple, colossal ignorance. They are banking on the primitive belief that Human nature will never change, that metamorphosis of the Human mind is a fantasy, and that all Universe is a single dimension, expression and reality where it is only “survival of the fittest” and “only the strong survive.” They are simply doing what they have always done in their primitive, ignorant jungle lives. It is the way it has always been.

And they never even suspect that in their colossal ignorance, and their destructive sabotage and corruption of the pure potential and the questing human dream inside us all, that they are destroying the only hope for survival that the Human species has. It is beyond the realm of their prehistoric ignorance and a fear that devours and consumes them that instead of feasting upon this pure potential and innocence that they should have the faith to give it room, give it hope and vision, inspire it and set it free. The dream of hope and freedom is no longer alive within them, and they will be the last on Earth to escape the primitive chains of that prehistoric fear and ignorance. You and I will have to carry the Human dream for them, and endure more torture, draconian brutality and crucifying agony until they themselves can finally escape and see the light, join hands with the Human quest and find the New Way to be Human now buried in the darkness still lurking in their souls. We will have to believe in them until they can believe in themselves and walk through that door. We will have to stand with one foot in paradise and extend the mercy, forgiveness and reconciliation that our life force will need to open that door for us all. We will have to welcome them back with open arms because we need them beside us and that magnificent perfect Union can't be reached without them. We will have to forgive and forget, and get on with the Human dream.

And we must recognize that part of that failure and that abominable ignorance is our own. We too are at fault. This brutal and ruthless tragedy is partly of our own doing. We have been easy prey to be feasted upon. "They" are in control because we have let them. We resonate to the secret Unity of the magnificent CONTINUUM of Universe but have primitively interpreted and mistaken it for discrete, singular and fatally flawed Holy and Supreme Power elite on Earth. Instead of perfect Union of Universe, "they" are ignorantly obsessed with their own private survival and selfish empire. You and I have surrendered our precious "potential" to them, never suspecting where the true Power of Universe is, and that the dream is hidden inside "us." We have also been colossal fools.

You And I, Hand In Hand

THE truth is that we are our own jailers.⁶² Within us all is the light and the awesome potential to set ourselves free. But because of ignorance and Primal Fear we surrender that power and forsake the promise and gift of Life that we have been given in trust. No one can take that divine whisper of the destiny of Universe that is deep inside from us. It can only be given away. And this is just what we have done for such a long, long time. We have turned our back upon our potential and given our lives away.

We rent our sacred daily existence and barter away the precious time of our lives just to live because we are afraid to trust and believe in ourselves. And the reason our lives have become an illusion and we are buried alive in chaos, despair and tragedy is because in colossal ignorance we have been so afraid of losing our lives that we have abandoned the “potential” deep inside us all and cannot yet stand unafraid and reach for the destiny we were born to find. Perhaps in our rage to escape this present worldwide agony and find someone to blame for this wretched state of our civilization and our blessed besieged Biosphere we should look in the mirror.

We all are to blame. And none of us can find the way out and reach safety and sanctuary alone. Each of us have to step beyond monstrous ignorance and mortal terror and stop blaming and hurting each other. We must find the way through together, hand in hand.⁶³

Try to imagine a world where Human beings spent their lives focusing most of all upon Union, upon cooperation and working ever more closely together to find the hidden ways to “share” life more perfectly rather than concentrating on self-centered survival, suspicion, accumulation of wealth and advantage, or preservation of territory, property and domain. Dream of a world without hypocrisy, greed, deception, distrust, duality, exploitation or waste. Where no set of arbitrary laws or judicial and governmental systems of organized retribution and punishment served to maintain and enforce external social and moral order, but instead order and cohesive stability flowed from a common focus within us all, as our Human society and our lives invisibly inclined towards becoming One along with the universal Continuum to perfect, magnificent Union.

Picture a world where the strong are always just, and exploitation or usury are non-existent; where hate, fear, brutality and oppression are viewed as intolerable hindrances to the nurturing of priceless and vital Unity. Where everyone resonates deeply to the sacred truth that finding the path together to Union is our only way to survive. Where for the first time on Earth and in all history everyone was on the same page. Scientists. Supreme and powerful elite. Philosophers. Spiritual leaders. Every race, creed and social being. And every blessed common life on Earth. Walking the same path. Dreaming the same dream.

The Last Great Human Revolution On Earth

SUCH an impossible dream can come true. Following such a path is simply the destiny of Universe. We all can come together, become United and finally reach that perfect and pure sanctuary of Union where we all belong. This tormented, besieged and disintegrating world we live in will gradually dissolve into a harmonious, hopeful communion as we realize that the prison of the Primal Perspective which the Human mind has always been captive in not only can be escaped, but must be escaped if we are to survive extinction and oblivion and prosper and grow into the future.

Those that hurt, use and manipulate, deceive, exploit and destroy are not the vanguard and epitome of our civilization. They are a primitive, extreme and immature aberration that will not survive, but will and must evolve. We live, then, once again in an age of walking dinosaurs. Instead of huge, lumbering obsolescence, these modern Human dinosaurs are typified by a prehistoric, flawed perspective that is now destroying our world. It is a perspective that in the most extreme state can be identified by the actions of merciless exploitation, subterfuge, disinformation and the crippling corruption of dissension, ruthless selfish interest, oppression, abuse and tyranny all designed to save themselves and their empire. But that extreme ignorance cannot be tolerated in our besieged world today, it must evolve and change. A new way to live together beyond the endless catastrophic confrontations and waste of Human life and potential must be found. All of us are involved in a massive sea change of awareness and a metamorphosis where we can begin life on Earth again...in a different way.

This then is the beginning of the last, great Human revolution on Earth. Finally we are at the doorway of the supreme metamorphosis of the Human mind.⁶⁴ We are witnessing the birth of an ultimate, golden renaissance of Humankind. We must open our eyes and set our minds and spirit free. We are living in a challenging age where the future of Human life on Earth depends upon simple Human beings, like you and me. We are all poised in front of that open door that will lead us into a new day. We will learn to understand and rise above our Primal Fear and evolve a new enlightened perspective beyond the prehistoric ignorance. And we will take the first step through that door when we finally begin to “share” life together.

Believe in it...and make it so.

Setting the Human Dream Free

IN the hushed final moments of our lives, when each of us wend our way to the endtimes and are poised on the edge of the great divide, preparing to enter into and become part of the mystery. In the great shadows when the fever of life subsides and we sense the approach of the peace and sublime pulsing rhythm and symphony waiting to embrace us and take us home, and we look back upon the carousel of our lives the only things that will have mattered are the personal intimacies, connections, relationships⁶⁵ and deep personal bonds that we have been blessed with in the time of our lives. Only those fleeting and everlasting murmurs of love,⁶⁶ compassion and Union endure, and form the meaning and integrity of our lives. Everything else fades away.

The true lesson of Universe speaks to us then and, at last and finally, we understand what really matters, what everything finally means. It all comes down to the whisper of Union that we have tried to grasp and hold onto in our lives. And it is with that shining light finally illuminating our journey that we pass on in communion with the promise of eternity. We are all ignorant fools, but we treasure within us the dream. And it is that dream and that promise that caresses us and carries us into the great beyond.

Universe is the womb of Union and you and I are part of a great chain of being that is destined for magnificence. Ever so succinctly and slowly we are evolving a transcendent capacity to reach beyond ourselves in the fulminating majesty, inspiration and covenant of Universe to share the exquisite “potential” we are deep and sacred within. That unimaginable wonder of Metamorphosis even now is stirring in all of our lives.

We are only touching the edge of this metamorphosis. And it cannot be found alone, only hand in hand together. It is only a dream, created upon an idea. But ideas are really the only thing that have ever truly changed Humankind.⁶⁷ Somewhere in the way we share things; experience commonality and crudely, primitively communicate lies the key that will unlock that door and enable us to “share” life itself in another dimension. That profound and perfect form of interconnection and “sharing” will be something like communication, communion and love,⁶⁸ but will be beyond these primitive things. It will be similar to our crude ideas of energy, fusion and eternity but will dwarf all that. It will appear like light and sunrise, but more brilliant than we could have ever even imagined. Through that door lies the ability to feel, live and experience other life as completely and viscerally as we now know and feel our private, individual and discrete “circles of light.” It will transcend symbols, ritual or form. It will be the shimmering dawning of a higher Consciousness and will not have to be learned, or taught with rote memorization, example, habit or repetition. It just has to be set free. In the mind of a child⁶⁹ one day will come the answer all Humankind has been searching for since the beginning. And we will all set sail together into a new dream, and a new Universe.

The Human Story of a Universe of “Us”

THOUSANDS of years from now the only things that will have mattered are those things that bring us all together, closer to Union, not those which divide us. We are evolving closer and closer to a new Human perspective, and a more highly evolved awareness in which there can no longer be a Universe of “us” and “them.” Always, and only “us.”

We will finally have an answer to those whose existence depends upon and is derived from a primal and prehistoric survival instinct and a Universe where only the strong survive. We can now see in indelible and crystal clear language why those who exploit others and put themselves and their hierarchies above the common good are truly out of the flow of Universe and are destined to be swept away with a Primal Perspective that is doomed to disintegration. We all must join hands to seek this CONTINUUM together and no one can be left behind. It is no longer viable for anything or anyone to succeed at the expense of others. No longer are there any special chosen elite. We can only reach this Union together, not individually. No longer can the Human mind and the Human species confidently subjugate and exploit other species, and manipulate and defile the secret natural order of Universe with what we can now recognize to be such a fatally flawed primitive awareness and a gross, abominable ignorance of the real truth and meaning of Universe, itself. Any selfishness, aggrandizement or exploitation in our world are mutant aberrations from the primitive world of “discreteness” and will one day soon end.

What will take center stage in our lives is simply the Human story. The simple, common dreams and strivings for the good, the decent, the innocent and the concordance with the suffering, the broken, the needy. The hope for the “happy ending” and the underdog somehow conquering overwhelming, long-shot impossible odds. What will matter most is feeling connected and part of; how we feel joined to other Human beings, how we are connected to the whole of civilization and life on Earth. Whether or not we can feel it is our world, and our Universe, and whether or not we feel part of, respected, valued and cared for in everything, everywhere. Whether we truly belong.

It is only the uncommon, priceless moments of borning Union we have been lucky enough to nurture and share during the wild, gasping hunger of raw, frantic life that will hold our lives together and that will form the fabric and heart of our existence. Civilizations in the future will be measured and judged by how the weak and the helpless, who are now considered as less “competent” and less “productive” are treated. The success of Humanity will depend upon how the quality of their life really is, and what their lives are really like, whether their valiant, common lives are really worth living. Our Human life force will collectively be tuned to that whisper of secret, one day, perfect total Union centering all of our lives, and lighting the way to higher ground for us all.

A New Way to Be Human On Earth

FROM now on our world will be transforming constantly. Staggering, cataclysmic change will blossom everywhere. Inexorably decisions and attitudes will begin revolving around Human lives; Human values, making Human life on Earth more valuable, more rich, full and more precious. Power, control, and who wins, or who loses will not matter any longer. Not money, or how much things are worth, or how much you have or can grab; not hierarchy, or the system, the “status quo”, or who you are and what you have: Individual status, wealth or power will unfailingly wither and disappear in importance. What will replace it is an evolving circle of relationships around you. Those who touch you and care for you, and those you, yourself, care for and touch. This then is the last, great Human revolution, that is happening where true revolution always occurs; hidden in the common, simple lives we all lead. And the battle cry of this revolution is the quiet statement that, in the words of Pete Seeger, we must “treat each other decently.”⁷⁰

This circle will expand and grow ever outward, finally engulfing everything else: The true “growth industry” on Earth. That contact, that spark of Union will become what matters most, above all else. And what is decent, beautiful and precious in the Human soul will finally be set free from the malevolent ignorance and terrifying darkness. Human beings at long last will know deep within their beings why all of us must care.

We now have a glimpse of the way through to higher ground. We have begun to fashion a new vision of the new Human world that will one day be. And that vision is awakening all over this fulminating Earth. We are finally aligning ourselves with the truth, design and destiny of Universe. Our lives are finally beginning to have deep, abiding meaning. We are beginning to finally understand why we were born, and why we were given the gift of life, and where we belong. We can sense it, now. You and I, we can feel it growing inside in the dark shadow lands of our evolving minds, just waiting for the light of day.⁷¹ You and I can together fashion a New Way to be Human on Earth. One day Human beings will live “shared” lifetimes on this planet, and our life force will walk into a new day. Wait for it. We will survive and hand in hand and you and I together will become what we were born to be. It is just a matter of time.⁷²

Our beings and our essences are priceless components in and incomparable expressions of an indestructible Universal Consciousness that is destined for magnificence and perfect Union.

“From here outward,
The waves spread.
The echoes begin.”⁷³

Conclusion

THERE are some ideas that are so huge, that open the future so wide... that you can build a world upon them. Such ideas like the wheel, fire-making, the one God...and the heliocentric universe change things so incomprehensibly that nothing is ever the same again. The idea that human beings were born to one day “share” life and reach a metamorphosis where they can finally evolve and Consciously become the magnificent living concept that all Universe is engaged in a colossal CONTINUUM to an unimaginable, perfect and sublime Union of all creation is such an idea. It opens up a future so transcendent and incomparable that it finally becomes possible to believe in, and gather together...hand in hand...to journey as one life force into paradise.

In raw and crude fashion, this is the dream⁷⁴ that is troubled here in these confounding and radical pages. It has taken a lifetime of dogged, relentless and discordant effort to drag this idea out of the shadows into the fervent light of day to be examined. Like gathering a pile of warm and newly washed clothes from the dryer they have often times been more than I could carry and I have dropped socks and stray things behind me, always having to pick them up again and struggle to keep everything collected in a jumbled collage of thoughts and words and language. You should read this with the understanding that between the lines a human life has passed concurrent and flustered here...consumed and run rabid with the amenities and the everyday torments and stark crisis of work, family and never ending problems that besiege and overwhelm us all in our frantic lives. Take the best that you can find here, and forgive the rest. Use what fits, and take the seeds dispersed here to help make a better world for us all. Fashion our imperfect love and communion upon them. Make them take root and grow in the glorious sunlight of a New Human World where the oncoming torrent of our life force will splendor in a magic Universe awaiting us all...and Human beings on this Earth will finally become One.

Until that time.

8 “And we must not underestimate how terribly we need a new concept of man. The philosophical legacy of the seventeenth century, which Western civilization has been living on, is used up. The materialistic metaphysics which gave us the Industrial Revolution is now destroying us. Our institutions are foundering one after the other. Our way of life is becoming unworkable. Our techniques of relating to each other are driving our species toward extinction and making our only planet an unbelievable garbage dump.” Robert E. Ornstein (ed.), The Nature of Human Consciousness, New York, USA, 1974, p. 465

9 “But altogether we are in a transition period on a scale such as no society has ever encountered. None of our social organizations are prepared to deal with changes on such a scale. The result is that we may oscillate, or we may destroy ourselves, or we may reach a high level steady state. It will be a new form of society, totally different as a new species, if we are to survive.” Carl Sagan, CETI, P. 151 (quote from J. R. Platt)

10 “I am of the opinion, however, that this time the problem is forming up the other way around. This time the phenomenon of Life will eventually tell us something about the laws of nature first. And when we finally grasp the message, whatever its exact content, there is little doubt that it will command a revolution in our ways of thinking, a turning inside out and upside down of our ideas of space and time, cause and effect, person and identity, that will make relativity and quantum mechanics seem like a casual warm-up for the real event” Karl Brunstein, Beyond the Four Dimensions, Walker Publishing Co., Inc., 1979, P. 104

- 11 “We must free ourselves by one decisive effort from the weight of custom, prejudice and tradition with which our consciousness of the world has been overlaid, that in that consciousness in its simplest and most elementary form we may find the true beginnings of knowledge.” Descartes.
- 12 “There can no longer be any question that we will survive individually, we can only survive collectively. The nuclear power plant that plows plutonium in our earth to exude its poisons for the next twenty four thousand years will be no respecter of individual security. The mercury-laden fish are available at the best restaurants. There is nowhere to hide, there is only a place to start from.” Joan McIntyre (ed.), Mind in the Waters, Encore Editions, 1975, P. 50

- 14 “Without a global revolution in the sphere of human consciousness, nothing will change for the better in the sphere of our being as humans and the catastrophe toward which this world is headed-be it ecological, social, demographic or as a general breakdown of civilization- will be unavoidable.” Vaclav Havel
- 15 “I do not know what I may appear to the world; but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy, playing on the seashore, and diverting myself, in now and then finding a smooth pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary while the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me.” Isaac Newton, by J.W.N. Sullivan, 1938, P. 241
- 16 “Even among scientists themselves there are signs of a metaphysical rebellion. Modern man is searching for a new world view...One might say that here is a problem that cannot really be solved by ordinary sense perception and logical thought. Here is a clear case where another quality of mind is required." Jacob Needleman, A Sense of the Cosmos, P. 1 & 94

17 "You have a mind, and I have a mind. We can both observe our bodies, but I can never observe your mind nor you mine. In this respect, you and I remain unknowable to one another." John Hurrell Crook, The Evolution of Human Consciousness, P. 15. Also: "We can develop and share a language among uniquely different individuals because each of those individuals can take on enough of the commonality of language within his own brain to allow communication. But we must never forget that the thinking processes of the individual are still uniquely his or hers." John C. Lilly, The Mind of the Dolphin. 1967, P. 7

18 "The individual lies in a private world of his own perception, emotion and thought." Daniel Katz, Psychological Barriers to Communication, P. 170

19 "After a million or more years of little change and no potential for anything more advanced than the hunting societies at the close of the Pleistocene, a shift occurred, both to a new economic base and to a new social unit, which within 5,000 years led to the appearance of urban civilization in at least a few nuclear areas...Just why such a development should have occurred at this time, we don't know." Man in Prehistory, Chester S. Chard, P. 181-87

20 "The only real prison is fear. And the only real freedom is freedom from fear."Aung San Suu Kyi, Freedom From Fear.

21 "One of man's most striking differences from other animals rests in his capacity for objectification. Francisco Romero has described man's uniquely developed 'capacity to distinguish objects, to individualize them' as highly cognitive (P. 45, Theory of Man, Francisco Romero, University of California Press, 1964) and quite distinct...The capacity for objectification-which in turn made it possible to conceive of symbols, to devise articulate speech, to engage in abstract thought, to practice art, to develop concepts of persons, obligations and values, and to be aware of himself in the context of society-was itself of adaptive value", Grahame Clark, Aspects of Prehistory, Univ. of California Press, 1974, p. 106-107

- 22 "The successful handling of things presupposes the capacity for objectification. To manipulate things to the degree necessary to derive knowledge from their handling presupposes the possibility of discerning them as things, of being aware of their relations, modes and properties." Francisco Romero, Theory of Man, University of California Press, 1964, P. 18

- 25 "Newton's systematization of the concept of mass and the clarification of its relation to that of weight were of decisive importance for the development not only of mechanics and physics, but of science in general. In mechanics, mass became the fundamental characteristic of bodies and eventually identical with 'body'." Concepts of Mass in Classical and Modern Physics, Max Jammer, P. 75

- 29 “At last the cold crept up my spine; at last it filled me from foot to head; at last I grew so chill and desperate that all thought and pain and awareness came to a standstill. I wasn’t miserable anymore; I wasn’t anything at all. I was a nothing...I was aware of one thing only; next to the gaping fact called Death, all I knew was nothing, all I did meant nothing, all I conveyed meant nothing. There was no passing thought. It was a gnawing, palpable emptiness, more real than the cold.” The River Why, David James Duncan
- 30 “Energy is a concept which cannot be given a model... We cannot say what energy is like, because it is among the most fundamental physical concepts at our disposal. We cannot even hazard a guess at what energy might be like from the point of view of physical structures. Indeed even to try to guess is to misunderstand the nature of the energy concept.” The Concept of Energy, D. W. Theobald

- 33 “In all kinds of knowledge I perceive that my views are insufficient, and my judgment imperfect. In experiments I come to conclusions which...if partly right, are sure to be in part wrong...always left with a tinge of humanity, evidenced by its imperfection...Though in favorable cases I may see a good deal, I never see the whole.” Michael Faraday, (Last lecture to the Royal Society, circa 1862)
- 34 “We are living at one of the truly crucial moments in our planet’s history, like the moment of creation, the moment when the first living cell was born, the moment when the first animal crawled out of the sea onto the land, the moment of man’s emergence. We stand on the threshold of either utopia or oblivion.” The Global Mind, Lewis J. Perelman, P. 272

- 36 “Death is awesome as the universe is awesome. Both are realities far beyond the scale of the ego...But we have no relationship to death...death cannot be faced in our everyday state of consciousness...Death is disappearance, coming to an end.” A Sense of the Cosmos, Jacob Needleman, P. 58-62

38 “We live our separate lives...And go our different ways... Cause we don’t see eye to eye...And we can’t stand face to face...We live our separate lives...While counting all the days...Til the two of us arrive...In another time and place.” We Live our Separate Lives, Song Lyrics, Allan Parsons Project

39 “The participants in this symposium all suppose, without question or examination, that one never knows other minds- or to put it better, other selves with their minds, wills, emotions etc- directly. They resolutely put aside the suggestion that there may be an immediate intuition, sympathy, love, or other way of penetrating beyond the outward forms men exhibit. They take it for granted that no one can ever reach the edge of another’s privacy, that no-one can possibly get below his surface.” Love in a Machine Age, Paul Weiss,

40 “The question now before the human species is whether life or death will prevail on the earth...No generation before ours has held the life and death of its species in its hands...In our present-day world, in the councils where the decisions are made, there is no one to speak for man and for the earth, although both are threatened with annihilation.” The Fate of the Earth, Johnathan Schell

42 “There are powerful corporate entities, fearful of losing their influence and wealth, arrayed against us. They are waiting for the moment to strike...The tools are in place... The mounting anger and hatred, coursing through the bloodstream of the body politic, make violence and counter-violence inevitable. Brace yourself. The American empire is over. And the descent is going to be horrifying.” Empire of Illusion, Chris Hedges

43 “Nothing happens unless first a dream.” Carl Sandburg

44 “I have not a minute to hate. I’ll pursue justice for the rest of my life.” Mamie Till, mother of slain and disfigured Emmet Till who was murdered in the deeply segregationist ignorance and the brutal enslavement of blacks in the Mississippi River delta in the 1950’s. The worldwide outcry, and the desecrated, brutalized image of his mangled body that she “wanted the world to see” forced the world to awaken and change forever senseless atrocities like this and was a cause célèbre of the Civil Rights Movement in the United States.

45 “Father forgive them, for they know not what they do.” Bible, Luke 23:34. First of seven sayings of Jesus Christ during his crucifixion, traditionally called “The Word of forgiveness.”

46 “Let the storms blow through the streets of cities; the root is safe, the many-faceted animal of which we are one flashing and evanescent facet will not pass with us. When the last seared hand has flung the last grenade, an older version of that hand will be stroking a clinging youngster hidden in its fur, high up under some autumn moon. I will think of beginning again, I say to myself then, sleepily. I will think of beginning again, in a different way...” The Firmament of Time, Loren Eiseley, P. 86

- 49 “In this condition, samahdi, the duality of observer and observed is transcended and there is perfect stillness without boundaries and no self-awareness as an object; simply light, bliss, pure being (sat-chit-awanda).” The Evolution of Human Consciousness, John Hurrell Crook, P. 340
- 50 “There is a beautiful moment called Satori or enlightenment given to some at odd times. In this moment the One sees itself create itself into all things and the mystery of creation is undone...Back home it sees that wandering through all creation, it never leaves home.” The Natural Depth in Man, Wilson Van Dusen
- 51 “Yet we do not understand how it (organism) builds a flower or a hand or an eye. All of which are plainly visible to us...How the cells unite together to form tissues, the tissues to form organs, and the organs to form the whole organism, we can describe but we cannot yet fully comprehend.”Developmental Biology, F. H. C. Crick F.R.S.
- 52 “If the principle of relativity is to be fully exploited, then it would seem that logical consistency could be maintained only if the notion that matter is made out of discreet little bits- the elementary particles- were abandoned...A full exploitation of the principle of relativity, according to this view, should then start with the mutual interaction, or said in other ways, the mutual influence, the oneness without actual parts, rather than the free non-interacting thing, as the basic entity from which to build a fundamental description of matter. Thus, instead of the elementary particle of the quantum approach, it is the elementary interaction that must here be considered as the basic object to start from.” “The Search for a Theory of Matter, Mendel Sachs

53 “the universe is composed not of matter but of music.”
Donald Hatch Andrews

54 “The Sun is but a morning star.” Walden, Henry David Thoreau

55 “During the past four hundred years, we have gradually adopted the belief that science can be built only on the notion that everything is made of matter-of so-called atoms in the void. We have come to accept materialism dogmatically, despite its failure to account for the most familiar experiences of our daily lives. In short, we have an inconsistent worldview. Our predicament has fueled the demand for a new paradigm- a unifying worldview that will integrate mind and spirit into science. No new paradigm, however has surfaced. This book proposes such a paradigm...the centerpiece of this new paradigm is the recognition that modern science validates an ancient idea-the idea that consciousness, not matter is the ground of all being.”The Self-Aware Universe, Amit Goswami, P.1-2

56 “Invisible rhythms underlie most of what we assume to be constant in ourselves and the world around us. Life is in continual flux, but the change is not chaotic. The rhythmic nature of earth life is, perhaps, its most unusual and yet overlooked property. Though we can neither see nor feel them, we are nevertheless surrounded by rhythms of gravity, electromagnetic fields, light waves, air pressure, and sound. Each day, as earth turns on its axis, we experience the alternation of light and darkness. The moon’s revolution, too, pulls our atmosphere into a cycle of change. Night follows day. Seasons change. The tides ebb and flow. These various rhythms are also seen in animals and man.

We, too, change, growing sleepy at night and restlessly active by day. We, too, exhibit the rhythmic undulations of our planet." Biological Rhythms, Gay Luce

60 "...From forth the fatal loins of these two foes, A pair of star-cross'd lovers take their life; Whole misadventured piteous overthrows, do with their death bury their parents' strife..." Romeo and Juliet, Act I, Prologue. William Shakespeare

61 "His ship was powered...by a phenomenon known as UWTB, or the Universal Will to Become. UWTB is what makes universes out of nothingness- that makes nothingness insist on becoming somethingness." The Sirens of Titan, Kurt Vonnegut, jr., P. 138

62 "I read and walked for miles at night along the beach, writing bad blank verse and searching endlessly for someone wonderful who would step out of the darkness and change my life. It never crossed my mind that that person could be me." Anna Quindlen

63 "We will surely get to our destination if we join hands." Aung San Suu Kyi

- 64 “A human being is part of the whole called by us universe, a part limited in time and space. He experiences himself, his thoughts and feelings as something separated from the rest, a kind of optical delusion of his consciousness. This delusion is kind of a prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest to us. Our task must be to free ourselves from this prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty.” Albert Einstein
- 65 “More and more it seems that form, the relationships of the parts to each other, is much more important than the parts themselves” Lifetide, Lyall Watson, P. 3. Also; “The same truth- that all knowledge of external events is derived from the relationships between them- is recognized in the fact that to achieve more accurate perception, a human being will always resort to change in the relationships between himself and the external object...What we perceive easily is difference and change- and difference is a relationship.” The Cybernetic Analysis of Change in Complex Social Organizations, Mervyn L. Cadwallader. Also; “When, however it is realized that the recognition of Gestalten depends upon the formal relations among external events, then it is evident that thinking in terms of ‘things’ is secondary- an epiphenomenon- which conceals the deeper truth that we still think only in terms of relationships.” Communication: the Social Matrix of Psychiatry, Gregory Bateson

68 “Driven by the forces of love, the fragments of the world seek each other so that the world may come into being... Love in all its subtleties is nothing more, and nothing less, than the more or less direct trace marked on the heart of the element by the psychical convergence of the universe upon itself.” Love as Energy, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

69 “If I had influence with the good fairy who is supposed to preside over the christening of all children, I should ask that her gift to each child in the world be a sense of wonder so indestructible that it would last throughout life.” The Sense of Wonder, Rachel Carson

70 “This extraordinary problem which sooner or later the entire world has to face up to, how people of very different ethnic backgrounds can learn to live together on this Earth, doesn’t mean they have to live right on top of each other, but that they have to treat each other decently.” Pete Seeger, quoted on a plaque displayed in the Education Building, Beecher House Center for the study of Equal Rights, Litchfield, Connecticut

71 “I learned this, at least. From my experiment: that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unimagined in common hours.” Walden, Henry David Thoreau

72 “It is possible to believe that all the past is but the beginning, and that all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn. It is possible to believe that all the human mind has ever accomplished is but the dream before the awakening. We cannot see, there is no need for us to see, what this would be like when the day has finally come. We are creatures of the twilight...All the world is heavy with the promise of greater things.” The Discovery of the Future, H. G. Wells

⁷⁴ “We engage in dissent for the sake of liberty and we are prepared to try again and again with passion, with a sense of responsibility and a sense of proportion to achieve what may seem impossible to some. We are struggling with open eyes to turn our dream of freedom into a reality. I would like to end this lecture with my favorite lines from Kipling with many thanks to Tim Garton-Ash who tracked them down, ‘-but this is a different thing! I’ll not fight with the Powers of Air-sentry, pass him through! Drawbridge let fall-He’s the lord of us all-the Dreamer who’s dream came true!” Aung San Suu Kyi, BBC Reith Lecture, Liberty, June 28,2011, Broadcast remote from Burma
